FBI Raid Nets Small Arsenal

Accused Bank Robber, Girl Friend Nabbed

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Federal agents searching the house that had been occupied by accused bank robber Bobby Randall Wilcoxson and his girl friend came upon a small arsenal.

Hand grenades, parts of a sub-machine gun, two automatics, a sawed-off shotgun, and ammunition were just part of the cache catalogued and hauled away by federal agents Sunday.

Saturday, some 30 FBI agents had surprised the dwelling's occupants—Wilcoxson, 33, and Jacqueline Ruth Rose, 19. They submitted to arrest without a struggle. The Rose girl's 14-month-old baby was turned over to police matrons.

Wilcoxson was on the FBI's most-wanted list and had been referred to many times as a "modern-day Dillinger." He is charged with a number of bank robberies throughout the country which reportedly ended in the shotgun slaying of a bank guard.

The Rose girl is charged with driving the getaway car on at least one occasion.

The FBI also wants to ask them about the $1.5-million mail truck robbery in Plymouth, Mass., last August.

Agents recovered some $21,000 in cash, still in bank wrappers; a large bunch of keys, which agents said would operate any General Motors car on the market; an assortment of press passes; special police badge; a two-way radio; $600 worth of traveler checks; a passport; various identification cards, and two magazine articles comparing Wilcoxson to John Dillinger.

Dillinger, a notorious bank robber, was arrested in Tucson, Ariz., and taken to Crown Point, Ind., but escaped from jail there March 3, 1934. Dillinger was shot to death by federal agents when he emerged from a movie house in Chicago July 22 that year.

Smoking, Cancer Link under Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government advisory committee has started an extensive study aimed at finding whether smoking is a cause of lung cancer.

The Public Health Service said Sunday the surgeon general's advisory committee on smoking and health was starting a broad review of "the scientific literature and basic studies on all aspects of the use of tobacco and smoking habits, as well as possible contributing factors such as air pollution, industrial exposure, radiation and alcohol."

The recently appointed 10-member committee expects to take about six to eight months to complete its report.

Two Drivers Suffer Injuries In Accidents during Weekend

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department investigated two one-car accidents of a similar nature Saturday and Sunday.

The first occurred at 5:32 p.m. Saturday, Thomas J. Tilton, 24, of Route 1, Circleville, received severe head injuries when his car left the road and turned over two miles northwest of here on the Circleville-Commercial Point Road.

Tilton was taken to Berger Hospital and transferred to University Hospital. He was listed in "satisfactory" condition today.

Tilton was cited for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants by Deputy Sheriff George Linder.

IN THE other accident a vehicle driven by Fred Payne, 19, of 208 Lancaster Pike veered from the road, demolished 80 feet of fence and struck a utility pole.

The accident was at 3:45 a. m. Sunday just east of the city limits on the Stoutsville Pike. Payne told Deputy Gene Kerns that he fell asleep at the wheel.

He was taken to Berger Hospital and transferred to University Hospital. He was listed in "fair" condition. No charges were filed.

GI Is Saved From Shaft

IDAHO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—"He's alive! He's alive!" Cheers echoed Sunday through the abandoned shafts of an old Colorado gold mine as tired and grimy rescuers pulled to safety a 23-year-old airman buried 14 hours in the murky depths.

Airman Z.C. Chester West of Rye, N.Y., fell 200 feet down a shaft in the Idaho Bride mine. He was injured seriously.

West and Airman Robert I. Hanson, 19, of Wittenburg, Wis., were exploring the mine three miles west of here in the central Rockies when West plunged down the shaft Saturday afternoon.

Hanson made his way to the highway and hailed a motorist, who notified officials.

Norman Blake, district state mine inspector and about 35 volunteers began searching for West.

Once West was found, it took rescuers three hours to bring him out of the winding tunnels.

Enraged Father Beats Son, Then Takes Own Life

Roy Dingus Victim Of Shotgun Blast; 7 Children Survive

A 44-year-old mental patient and father of seven children died at about 7:30 a. m. today as the result of a self-inflicted shotgun wound in the stomach.

Roy Dingus, Route 1, Williamsport, took his own life after beating his three-year-old son, James, with a hammer. The youth was reported in "poor" condition at Children's Hospital, Columbus, at noon.

The tragedy followed an outburst of anger early this morning at the Dingus home on the Robert Barnes property, south of Williamsport.

According to Mrs. Dingus' statement to the Sheriff's Department, her husband was a voluntary commitment to the Columbus State Hospital. She said he was released last Thursday.

YESTERDAY, Mrs. Dingus said, her husband returned to the hospital on his own free will, but hospital officials told him "he would be just as well off at home."

Prior to the suicide, Mrs. Dingus told Sheriff Walton Spangler her husband awakened early and checked the heating stove of the small frame house. He returned to the bedroom and said "I think I'll just get rid of all of you."

She said he picked up a knife and ran towards a six-year-old daughter. The child ran from the house and Dingus pursued her for a short distance and returned to the house.

The six-year-old ran, to the Barnes' residence, about 200 yards from the Dingus home, and (Continued on Page 2)

U.N. Threatens Action against Katanga Force

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Congo Command is threatening action against secessionist Katanga's air force after reports of bombings in North Katanga.

A message from the U.N. Command in Leopoldville Sunday said the U.N. air force would fly over the area to verify the reports and would announce later what action, if any, it would take against Katanga planes.

U. N. officials said they had "fairly reliable" reports that about 16 Katanga planes dropped at least 69 bombs Saturday in five successive strikes to objectives in North Katanga. There was no estimate of casualties. The reports told of bombing victims being evacuated.

The United Nations lately has issued reports indicating that Katanga President Moise Tshombe, who had only one operational plane in September 1961, now has something like 50, along with 20 to 50 pilots and technicians.

The message from the Leopoldville office of Robert K. A. Gardiner in command of the U.N. operation in the Congo, estimated about 10 planes may have carried out Saturday's bombings, striking a road junction and a hospital and near a bridge.

AFL-CIO Chiefs' Feud Is Aired

Reuther-Meany Fuss May Be Compromised

WASHINGTON (AP)—Walter Reuther carries a secession threat to a crucial AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting today but a compromise was expected in his feud with federation chief George Meany.

Peacemakers worked to settle the union internal battle in the belief that a separated labor movement could not accomplish more than a single organization even though it was embroiled in policy differences.

A simple solution reportedly was being proposed to settle a hot controversy over filling a vacant post on the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

This was to abolish the vacancy by reducing the 29-man council membership by two positions.

The contested vacancy was one from the former CIO side. But another seat, from the old AFL branch, held by President William Doherty of the Letter Carriers Union, is being vacated because Doherty has been appointed by President Kennedy as ambassador to Jamaica.

Reuther, president of the Auto Workers Union and one-time head of the old CIO before the merged federation was established in 1955, has been insisting that President Ralph Helstein of the Packinghouse Workers be named to one of the vacant council posts staked out for former CIO unionists.

Meany, AFL-CIO president, rejected Helstein on the ground that he and his union have been charged with left-wing tendencies. He suggested that a more acceptable CIO choice would be Eugene E. Frazier, a Negro, president of the United Transport Service employees representing depot "Red Caps."

Guam Is Lashed By Vicious Storm

HONOLULU (AP)—Typhoon Karen—described as the worst tropical storm in Guam's history—has rendered the island nearly helpless, leaving hundreds injured, at least one dead and an estimated $100 million in damage.

Karen ripped the tiny island—hub of the United States Pacific defense ring—late Sunday night and early Monday, Guam time, with winds estimated at 150 knots.

The Navy's Pacific Fleet headquarters at Pearl Harbor said a three-day warning of the big blow "saved countless lives."

Guamanians and U.S. military personnel and their dependents began digging out of the battered island.

Guam's acting governor, Manuel Guerrero, sent an urgent appeal to Washington to rush aid. He said, "entire territory devastated by Typhoon Karen."

Guerrero's message said 95 per cent of the island's civilian community, including government employee housing, was useless or destroyed.

Pacific Fleet headquarters said four of every five civilian homes had their roofs blown off.

Missile Status Is under Study

Did Russia Take Out All She Brought In?

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy summoned his three Cuban crisis negotiators to the White House today to discuss developments to date in their talks with Soviet and U.N. representatives.

The announcement of the meeting, issued by the U.S. delegation at the United Nations, did not elaborate. One development certain to be on the agenda is the Soviet missile withdrawal.

Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatric confirmed Sunday the United States has counted 42 Russian missiles on ships steaming away from Cuba.

He stressed that without on-site inspection the United States cannot be certain whether the 42 were all Moscow sent in.

"The Soviets said there were 42," he said. "We have counted 42 going out. We saw fewer than 42 in U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba."

"Until we have so-called on-site inspection of the island of Cuba we could never be sure that 42 was the maximum number the Soviets brought into Cuba."

The negotiators Kennedy will see are: U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson; Charles D. Yost, Stevenson's Security Council deputy, and John J. McCloy, chairman of the President's Cuban crisis coordinating committee.

A delegation spokesman said the three will discuss with the President "developments to date in negotiations on the Cuban question with Acting U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant and Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov."

Foreign Aid Chief To Ask Allied Help

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fowler Hamilton is leaving his post as U.S. foreign aid director. But before he steps down, he plans a European trip to try to coax more Western nations into giving more assistance to underdeveloped countries.

President Kennedy was reported searching for a successor to Hamilton, who handed in his resignation last week after little more than a year as head of the Agency for International Development—AID.

Heading the list of those being mentioned for the subcabinet job was Budget Director David E. Bell. Others included Kennedy's brother-in-law, Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver, and Chester Bowles, presidential adviser on underdeveloped areas.

Associates said Hamilton, 51, intends to return to law practice in New York. He presided over some controversial changes in the foreign aid program and ran into personnel difficulties.

Before leaving his official position, Hamilton intends to make a two-week trip starting next Wednesday or Thursday. His mission is to try to convince several important industrialized countries they should carry a bigger share of the aid to backward areas.

Principal stops on Hamilton's tour are slated to be Paris, Rome, Bonn and Brussels.

Runaway Thumbs Wrong Motorist

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A 16-year-old Eastlake runaway is in the Lake County detention home today because he hitched a ride with the wrong motorist.

The teenager ran away Friday night, then tried to hitch a ride Saturday morning. Along came Mrs. Frances Monda of Willoughby and gave him a lift—straight to Willoughby police.

Mrs. Monda, an employee of the Juvenile Probation Office, had learned of the boy's disappearance only a short time before, and recognized him immediately.

The photos show high, rugged mountains, gaping valleys, mysterious seas that may be dust or craters, some of which have mountain ranges within their perimeters.

TV Viewers Hiss Alger Hiss On 'Nixon Obituary' Show

NEW YORK (AP)—A televised appearance of Alger Hiss on a program entitled "The Political Obituary of Richard M. Nixon" was met Sunday night by a flood of phoned and telegraphed protests, cancellation of the program by several stations and picketing of network studios.

One Midwestern station carrying the program received a bomb threat but it proved to be a fake. Pickets appeared outside studios of the American Broadcasting Co. in New York and Los Angeles.

ABC said the taped program gave an honest summary of Nixon's career, including comments from persons applauding him.

The 10 men and women pickets marching outside ABC's main studio here, from where the program was aired, carried signs such as "Why a nationwide forum for a convicted perjurer, Alger Hiss?"

Several ABC-affiliated stations cancelled the showing of the program about the former vice president.

This was to abolish the vacancy by reducing the 29-man council membership by two positions.

The contested vacancy was one from the former CIO side. But another seat, from the old AFL branch, held by President William Doherty of the Letter Carriers Union, is being vacated because Doherty has been appointed by President Kennedy as ambassador to Jamaica.

Reuther, president of the Auto Workers Union and one-time head of the old CIO before the merged federation was established in 1955, has been insisting that President Ralph Helstein of the Packinghouse Workers be named to one of the vacant council posts staked out for former CIO unions.

Meany, AFL-CIO president, rejected Helstein on the ground that he and his union have been charged with left-wing tendencies. He suggested that a more acceptable CIO choice would be Eugene E. Frazier, a Negro, president of the United Transport Service employees representing depot "Red Caps."

47,000 Russians Quit Siberian Jobs

MOSCOW (AP)—Report from central Siberia: Some 47,000 disgruntled workers have quit their jobs in the first six months of this year and construction of a model industrial center is years behind schedule.

The report was published Sunday in the Soviet newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya.

The newspaper, reporting on a special study in the Kemerovo area of central Siberia, accused construction leaders of concentrating on such little jobs as building greenhouses and making repairs while neglecting major tasks so they could report overfulfillment of construction quotas.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's weekend traffic accidents took a toll of 14 lives.

Guam Is Lashed By Vicious Storm

HONOLULU (AP)—Typhoon Karen—described as the worst tropical storm in Guam's history—has rendered the island nearly helpless, leaving hundreds injured, at least one dead and an estimated $100 million in damage.

Karen ripped the tiny island—hub of the United States Pacific defense ring—late Sunday night and early Monday, Guam time, with winds estimated at 150 knots.

The Navy's Pacific Fleet headquarters at Pearl Harbor said a three-day warning of the big blow "saved countless lives."

Guamanians and U.S. military personnel and their dependents began digging out of the battered island.

Guam's acting governor, Manuel Guerrero, sent an urgent appeal to Washington to rush aid. He said, "entire territory devastated by Typhoon Karen."

Guerrero's message said 95 per cent of the island's civilian community, including government employee housing, was useless or destroyed.

Pacific Fleet headquarters said four of every five civilian homes had their roofs blown off.

The acting governor's message said George Washington High and Tumon Junior High schools were destroyed. Guam Memorial Hospital, the island's public works department and utilities agencies were extensively damaged, Guerrero said.

He asked the Office of Emergency Planning to declare Guam a disaster area.

The Navy's report said strongest winds smashed the island Monday morning. First estimates placed property damage at $100 million.

Communications were completely blanked as the storm ripped out antennas and transmitting equipment.

Residents took refuge in storm shelters and government buildings. The Federal Aviation Agency said some dependents were to be evacuated to Wake Island.

The Navy's tracking center at Guam gauged sustained winds of 135 knots Sunday night and early Monday, before personnel were forced to run for shelters. Messages received in Japan said winds gusted to 147 knots before measuring devices broke down.

The island, just a dot on the map, is 30 miles long and four to nine miles wide.

Cuban Refugees Tell Grim Story of Life under Castro

GUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba (AP)—This U.S. naval base is a little mine of information about the grim life outside in Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Fifty refugees from Castro are here now, although U.S. officials do not admit this. The Cubans tell of hunger, a shortage of doctors, police-state rule, and dissatisfaction even among the people's militia.

They say the militia, the bulwark of Castro's military position, was disgruntled when it was put on short rations after being called up because of fear of a U.S. invasion.

Western intelligence experts estimate Castro has 200,000 men and women in the militia, and a regular army of 80,000 equipped with modern Soviet weapons.

Castro appears now to distrust the militia, refugees say. They report militiamen no longer can keep their rifles and machine guns while off duty and must account for all ammunition issued.

Besides the refugees, who climb the high steel, barbed-wire-topped fences or swim past Communist guards on the seaward side, Cuban workers at this base also are a source of information on life on the outside.

A worker employed on the base for 20 years said the people were overjoyed when it appeared last month President Kennedy was about to crack down on Castro. But now he said the people are disappointed and downhearted.

"The medical situation in Cuba is very bad," he said. "I heard three days ago my friend died without medical attention. Castro is very short of doctors and he is trying to improvise doctors. Anybody who had any experience is now a doctor.

"In the last 15 months I say maybe 60 per cent of the people are against Castro. In this time of crisis it has worsened.

"When President Kennedy made his Oct. 22 speech (announcing that Soviet missiles were in Cuba and must be removed), it made the people very happy but now they are downhearted. They are angry and hungry. They cannot get anything to eat.

"The United States is losing a lot of friends. People do not know what to do. People are just sick and worried."

Fixed Date For Easter Under Study

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Study of a perpetual calendar with a fixed date for Easter was urged today at the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council.

A spokesman said speakers in the closed council meeting declared such a world calendar could be especially significant for both religious and civil life if done in conjunction with other churches, especially those in the East.

Easter, according to the Roman calendar used in the West, comes on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after March 21, the start of spring. This means Easter falls between March 22 and April 25. Procedure for establishing the Easter holiday was fixed by the Council of Nicea in 325.

Orthodox churches say Easter must always fall after the Jewish Passover. Therefore the date for Easter in Eastern countries does not always coincide with Easter in the West. There have been efforts to fix a single day for Easter in the past. In 1928, the British House of Commons recommended that Easter always be the first Sunday after the second Saturday in April.

New Moon Photographs Show Rugged Mountains

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—What astronauts will see one day when they are 300 miles from the moon has been revealed in remarkably clear photographs released by the Lick Observatory on nearby Mt. Hamilton.

The photos show high, rugged mountains, gaping valleys, mysterious seas that may be dust or lightweight rock, cracks and craters, some of which have mountain ranges within their perimeters.

Missile Status Is under Study

Did Russia Take Out All She Brought In?

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy summoned his three Cuban crisis negotiators to the White House today to discuss developments to date in their talks with Soviet and U.N. representatives.

The announcement of the meeting, issued by the U.S. delegation at the United Nations, did not elaborate. One development certain to be on the agenda is the Soviet missile withdrawal.

Deputy Secretary of Defense Roswell L. Gilpatric confirmed Sunday the United States has counted 42 Russian missiles on ships steaming away from Cuba.

He stressed that without on-site inspection the United States cannot be certain whether the 42 were all Moscow sent in.

"The Soviets said there were 42," he said. "We have counted 42 going out. We saw fewer than 42 in U.S. reconnaissance flights over Cuba."

"Until we have so-called on-site inspection of the island of Cuba we could never be sure that 42 was the maximum number the Soviets brought into Cuba."

The negotiators Kennedy will see are: U.N. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson; Charles D. Yost, Stevenson's Security Council deputy, and John J. McCloy, chairman of the President's Cuban crisis coordinating committee.

A delegation spokesman said the three will discuss with the President "developments to date in negotiations on the Cuban question with Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov."

Foreign Aid Chief To Ask Allied Help

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fowler Hamilton is leaving his post as U.S. foreign aid director. But before he steps down, he plans a European trip to try to coax other Western nations into giving more assistance to underdeveloped countries.

President Kennedy was reportedly searching for a successor to Hamilton, who handed in his resignation last week after little more than a year as head of the Agency for International Development—AID.

Heading the list of those being mentioned for the subcabinet job was Budget Director David E. Bell. Others included Kennedy's brother-in-law, Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver, and Chester Bowles, presidential adviser on underdeveloped areas.

Associates said Hamilton, 51, intends to return to law practice in New York. He presided over some controversial changes in the foreign aid program and ran into personnel difficulties.

Before leaving his official position, Hamilton intends to make a two-week trip starting next Wednesday or Thursday. His mission is to try to convince several important industrialized countries they should carry a bigger share of the aid to backward areas.

Principal stops on Hamilton's tour are slated to be Paris, Rome, Bonn and Brussels.

Runaway Thumbs Wrong Motorist

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A 16-year-old Eastlake runaway is in the Lake County detention home today because he hitched a ride with the wrong motorist.

The teenager ran away Friday night, then tried to hitch a ride Saturday morning. Along came Mrs. Frances Monda of Wilkowitz and gave him a lift—straight to Willoughby police.

Mrs. Monda, an employee of the Juvenile Probation Office, had learned of the boy's disappearance only a short time before, and recognized him immediately.

Army 1st Lt. Richard P. Leach, whose wife, Catherine, lives on Route 2, Laurelville, recently participated in Exercise Three Paris, a United States Strike Command joint Army-Air Force maneuver, at Fort Hood, Texas.

The exercise was designed to train Army and Air Force units in combined operations stressing team play, speed and flexibility and the development of maximum fire power.

Leach entered the Army in June 1961 and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 20-year-old soldier attended Centralia High School and was employed by F and R Lazarus, Columbus, before entering the Army.

JAMES T. Kirkpatrick 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kirkpatrick, 703 N. Pickaway St., recently was promoted to private first class at Fort Sill, Okla., where he is a member of the 3rd Target Acquisition Battalion.

A surveyor in the battalion's Battery C, Kirkpatrick entered the Army in February 1962 and received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

He is a 1958 graduate of Circleville High School and attended Ohio University, Athens.

Arthur E. Founds, electrician's mate third class USN son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Founds, Ashville, is serving aboard the world's first nuclear-powered attack aircraft carrier, the USS Enterprise.

The Navy's "queen of the seas" is the largest ship in the world and measures 1,125 feet long.

Curtis Swackhammer, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Swackhammer, 114 W. Mill St., is also currently serving aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier, the USS Enterprise.

M-SGT. George E. Pritchard, son of Mrs. Katherine Pritchard, Route 2, Laurelville, was recently awarded the Distinguished Marksman Badge for excellence in weapons competition.

The award was presented for his high score shot on the ranges of Camp Perry, Ohio, in the recent annual National Matches at the northern Ohio camp.

Sgt. Pritchard is the holder of the Bronze Star for valor in combat, and participant of five major battles in Korea and holder of the Combat Infantryman's Badge. He is the lead coach of the Ft. Eustis, Va., Rifle and Pistol teams and doubles as the First Sergeant of the Marksmanship Training unit at Ft. Eustis.

Sgt. Pritchard a 1947 graduate of Laurelville High School, entered the Army in 1948.

With his wife, Yvonne, he lives at the trailer park on the post at Ft. Eustis.

Drivers Suffer Minor Injuries In Accidents

Two persons suffered slight injuries in two auto accidents Saturday in the city.

The first was at 12:45 p. m. at N. Court St. and Seyfert Ave. Police said an auto driven by Annabelle Rose, 36, of 148 Fairview Ave., was struck in the rear by a car operated by Russell Lutz, Jr., 17, of 325 E. Mound St.

Mrs. Rose complained of minor neck and back pains. Lutz was not injured.

Patrolman William Goff said the Rose car suffered minor damage.

THE SECOND collision was at 5:37 p. m. at an alley near 127 E. Main St. An auto driven by Mrs. Pauline Smallwood, 40, Route 1, was struck in the rear. Driver of the other car was Lawrence Bond, 36, of 326 Walnut St.

Mrs. Smallwood was taken to Berger Hospital for treatment of a whiplash injury of the neck. Police said the accident occurred when Mrs. Smallwood slowed down to allow a car ahead of her to turn left.

According to Patrolmen Richard Blaney and Dixie Watters, both cars suffered extensive damage.

Rosebush Trimming Results in Injury

A rosebush proved hazardous to a local man who received emergency treatment in Berger Hospital during the weekend. Four persons were treated and released.

Roy Walisa, 60, of 335 E. Ohio, lacerated his right leg with a knife while trimming a rosebush.

Donna Allison, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allison, 1198 Atwater Ave., fell and lacerated her upper lip on a bucket.

Lori Hastings, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hastings, 602 Clinton St., fell against a steel post and lacerated her right elbow.

asked the landlord to call the sheriff. She said her father "was hurting them."

Barnes rushed out to his car when he heard a shot in the Dingus home. He immediately called the Sheriff's Department.

Sheriff Spangler and Deputy Warren Straley arrived at the scene shortly after 7:35 p. m. and discovered Dingus lying dead on the floor in the kitchen. A 16-gauge shotgun was at his feet.

The three-year-old youth was lying on the bed, partially covered, the sheriff said. They immediately rushed the child to Berger Hospital. The youngster was later transferred to Children's Hospital, Columbus.

DR. Ray Carroll, county coroner, accompanied the sheriff on his return trip to the Dingus home. Dr. Carroll said Dingus died instantly of the self-inflicted shotgun wound.

Mr. Dingus was born Mar. 15, 1918, in Virginia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Dingus.

Surviving are his widow, Evelyn Williams Dingus; a son, James; six daughters, Judy, Patricia, Sandra, Betty, Debrah and Marian Dingus, all of the home; three brothers and two sisters. Arrangements are being completed by the Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

Indian-Chinese Fight Picks Up

3 Clashes Reported Near Burmese Border

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Hostilities between Indian and Communist Chinese troops are picking up around Walong in their undeclared border war. An Indian spokesman said today there were three weekend clashes in that area just west of the Burma border.

The Indians also had a brush with a Red Chinese patrol near Jang, at the west end of India's North East Frontier Agency, he said, but otherwise a lull continued.

The report from the front came as Prime Minister Nehru, striving to put the nation on guard against all eventualities, told newsmen he has asked the United States for plane. He did not say that kind of planes, but India evidently could use additional transports.

Concerning the weekend fighting, the spokesman said a Red Chinese party of unspecified size approached an Indian position near Walong on Saturday night and opened fire. He called this a probing action from which the Red Chinese withdrew.

That same night, an Indian patrol operating on the Himalayan ridges northwest of Walong encountered some Red Chinese. One Indian was wounded in the clash.

Another Indian patrol exchanged fire Sunday night with the Red Chinese and four Indians were wounded.

Since the initial Communist thrusts into Indian-claimed territory at 13 points in the offensive launched Oct. 20, there has been a lull of almost three weeks. Both sides have been moving up reinforcements.

Fayette Candidate To Seek Recount

WASHINGTON C. H. — Max E. Lawrence, Fayette County Commissioner candidate who lost by 18 votes in Tuesday's election, has announced plans to seek a recount.

The action is being taken at the request of Fayette County Republican party leaders. They will decide the precinct to be recounted. Lawrence was defeated by Democrat Robert J. Mace, 3,956 to 3,938. It was the only close race in Fayette.

Briton Says Khrush Hoped To Put Pressure on Kennedy

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Lord Home said today Soviet Premier Khrushchev put rockets in Cuba in an attempt to force President Kennedy on the defensive at any future summit conference.

This definition of the Soviet leader's motives was contained in a letter Home sent to members on the staff of Aberdeen University.

Referring to the missile bases in Cuba, Lord Home said Khrushchev has been preparing for a meeting with President Kennedy on the major problems of East-West relations later in the year.

"But he does not wish to negotiate on equal terms with President Kennedy," Home said.

"What he wanted to do was to be able to confront the President at a future summit with a change in the balance of nuclear power and thus to place the President at a political disadvantage."

The staff of Aberdeen University, at the height of the Cuban tension, had dispatched a petition urging the British government to

"disassociate itself from the dangerous action" of the United States government and work for a peaceful solution through United Nations agencies.

Meanwhile, in Bonn, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer voiced great skepticism today about reports that the Soviets are removing their missiles from Cuba.

Speaking to reporters on the eve of Washington conferences with President Kennedy, he declared the Cuban crisis is far from over and inquires: How does anyone know the rockets are gone?

He said 40 to 60 missiles had been taken to the island and added that as far as he is concerned no clear evidence has been presented that they are being removed.

Soviet ships have been photographed leaving Cuba with long, covered tubes on deck but that proves nothing, Adenauer maintained. He said he can not believe the Soviets would secretly transport missiles and nuclear warheads to Cuba and then quietly remove them again.

Adenauer called it dangerous to let the Soviets depict themselves as great peace lovers just because Soviet Premier Khrushchev said he would pull the rockets out of Cuba. He said the Kremlin wants to keep Cuba intact as a Communist country and that it is this Red Cuba in the center of the Americas that is the great danger to world peace.

Stock Market Still Climbing

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, motors, and tobaccos were strong as the stock market advanced in fairly heavy trading early this afternoon.

Key stocks rose from fractions to well over a point.

The ticker tape lagged behind transactions as buying enthusiasm was generated by favorable news and the market's ability to top the August recovery high in Friday's session.

Record auto sales, signs of increased demand for steel, and record retail volume in October helped set the stage for the continued rally.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.7 at 228.9 with industrials up 2.7, rails up 1.1, and utilities up .50. Liggett & Myers, American Tobacco, and Reynolds Tobacco gained a point or better. Philip Morris rose about 2. Lorillard rose close to a point.

Inspection of Cuba and ships entering Cuba.

Disposition of a score or more Ilyushin-28 medium jet bombers in Cuba which Kennedy included in the category of offensive weapons that had to be withdrawn.

Cuba's U.N. representative Carlos M. Lechuga told reporters on Sunday Cuba has not altered its objection to any inspection of its territory or ships. He said Cuba did not object to inspection of ships of other nations.

Authoritative U.N. sources said the United States and the Soviet Union have been unable to agree on how long the International Red Cross Committee should inspect Cuba-bound Soviet ships to make certain no more Soviet missiles are slipped in.

Thant has declared he hoped to announce final agreement on all points by Tuesday.

Meanwhile, the Cuban Revolutionary Council said today that there may be missiles in caves throughout Cuba, and urged international inspection.

Council President Jose 'Miro Cardona showed a map on a television program Sunday night pinpointing a dozen caverns he said were capable of hiding rockets.

Caves near Santiago de Las Vegas, Miro Cardona said, "have been dried, covered inside with concrete, and equipped with railroad tracks."

Three caves in Oriente Province, he added, ring the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo.

The first group of refugees to arrive by boat since the U.S. arms blockade said "there was a mass flight of militiamen to the hills as soon as people learned about the blockade."

Jose Rodriguez Padron, fisherman of Caibarien, Cuba, whose sailboat with five persons slipped past Fidel Castro's shore patrol and the American blockade, said "Cubans were happy as on a fiesta day when they heard about the blockade. We thought the days of the Communists were numbered."

Rodriguez and his group were sighted on a reef near Bimini, the Bahamas, by a skindiving group including E. Bill Behre, New York City.

The refugees were exhausted and without food and water. The skindivers towed them until a Coast Guard boat met them and took the Cubans to Miami.

Drivers Suffer Minor Injuries In Accidents

Two persons suffered slight injuries in two auto accidents Saturday in the city.

The first was at 12:45 p. m. at N. Court St. and Seyfert Ave. Police said an auto driven by Annabelle Rose, 36, of 148 Fairview Ave., was struck in the rear by a car operated by Russell Lutz, Jr., 17, of 525 E. Mound St.

Mrs. Rose complained of minor neck and back pains. Lutz was not injured.

Patrolman William Goff said the Rose car suffered minor damage.

THE SECOND collision was at 5:37 p. m. at an alley near 127 E. Main St. An auto driven by Mrs. Pauline Smallwood, 40, Route 1, was struck in the rear. Driver of the other car was Lawrence Bond, 36, of 326 Walnut St.

Mrs. Smallwood was taken to Berger Hospital for treatment of a whiplash injury of the neck. Police said the accident occurred when Mrs. Smallwood slowed down to allow a car ahead of her to turn left.

According to Patrolmen Richard Blaney and Dixie Watters, both cars suffered extensive damage.

Rosebush Trimming Results in Injury

A rosebush proved hazardous to a local man who received emergency treatment in Berger Hospital during the weekend. Four persons were treated and released.

Roy Walisa, 60, of 335 E. Ohio, lacerated his right leg with a knife while trimming a rosebush.

Donna Allison, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allison, 1198 Atwater Ave., fell and lacerated her upper lip on a bucket.

Lori Hastings, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hastings, 602 Clinton St., fell against a steel post and lacerated her right elbow.

Enraged Father

(Continued from Page 1) asked the landlord to call the sheriff. She said her father "was hurting them."

Barnes rushed out to his car when he heard a shot in the Dingus home. He immediately called the Sheriff's Department.

Sheriff Spangler and Deputy Warren Straley arrived at the scene shortly after 7:35 p. m. and discovered Dingus lying dead on the floor in the kitchen. A 16-gauge shotgun was at his feet.

The three-year-old youth was lying on the bed, partially covered, the sheriff said. They immediately rushed the child to Berger Hospital. The youngster was later transferred to Children's Hospital, Columbus.

DR. Ray Carroll, county coroner, accompanied the sheriff on his return trip to the Dingus home. Dr. Carroll said Dingus died instantly of the self-inflicted shotgun wound.

Mr. Dingus was born Mar. 15, 1918, in Virginia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Dingus.

Surviving are his widow, Evelyn Williams Dingus; a son, James; six daughters, Judy, Patricia, Sandra, Betty, Deborah and Marian Dingus, all of the home; three brothers and two sisters.

Arrangements are being completed by the Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

Indian-Chinese Fight Picks Up

3 Clashes Reported Near Burmese Border

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Hostilities between Indian and Communist Chinese troops are picking up again around Walong in their undeclared border war. An Indian spokesman said today there were three weekend clashes in that area just west of the Burma border. The spokesman said five Indian soldiers were wounded.

The Indians also had a brush with a Red Chinese patrol near Jang, at the west end of India's North East Frontier Agency, he said, but otherwise a lull continued.

The report from the front came as Prime Minister Nehru, striving to put the nation on guard against all eventualities, told newsmen he has asked the United States for plane. He did not say that kind of planes, but India evidently could use additional transports.

Concerning the weekend fighting, the spokesman said a Red Chinese party of unspecified size approached an Indian position near Walong on Saturday night and opened fire. He called this a probing action from which the Red Chinese withdrew.

That same night, an Indian patrol operating on the Himalayan ridges northwest of Walong encountered some Red Chinese. One Indian was wounded in the clash.

Another Indian patrol exchanged fire Sunday night with the Red Chinese and four Indians were wounded.

Since the initial Communist thrusts into Indian-claimed territory at 13 points in the offensive launched Oct. 20, there has been a lull of almost three weeks. Both sides have been moving up reinforcements.

Fayette Candidate To Seek Recount

WASHINGTON C. H. — Max E. Lawrence, Fayette County Commissioner candidate who lost by 18 votes in Tuesday's election, has announced plans to seek a recount.

The action is being taken at the request of Fayette County Republican party leaders. They will decide the precinct to be recounted. Lawrence was defeated by Democrat Robert J. Mace, 3,956 to 3,938. It was the only close race in Fayette.

Briton Says Khrush Hoped To Put Pressure on Kennedy

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Lord Home said today Soviet Premier Khrushchev put rockets in Cuba in an attempt to force President Kennedy on the defensive at any future summit conference.

This definition of the Soviet leader's motives was contained in a letter Home sent to members of the staff of Aberdeen University.

Referring to the missile bases in Cuba, Lord Home said Khrushchev has been preparing for a meeting with President Kennedy on the major problems of East-West relations later in the year.

"But he does not wish to negotiate on equal terms with President Kennedy," Home said.

"What he wanted to do was to be able to confront the President at a future summit with a change in the balance of nuclear power and thus to place the President at a political disadvantage."

The staff of Aberdeen University, at the height of the Cuban tension, had dispatched a petition urging the British government to

Inspection of Cuba and ships entering Cuba.

Disposition of a score or more Ilyushin-28 medium jet bombers in Cuba which Kennedy included in the category of offensive weapons that had to be withdrawn.

Cuba's U.N. representative Carlos M. Lechuga told reporters on Sunday Cuba has not altered its objection to any inspection of its territory or ships. He said Cuba did not object to inspection of ships of other nations.

Authoritative U.N. sources said the United States and the Soviet Union have been unable to agree on how long the International Red Cross Committee should inspect Cuba-bound Soviet ships to make certain no more Soviet missiles are shipped in.

Thant has declared he hoped to announce final agreement on all points by Tuesday.

Meanwhile, the Cuban Revolutionary Council said today that there may be missiles in caves throughout Cuba, and urged international inspection.

Council President Jose Miro Cardona showed a map on a television program Sunday night pinpointing a dozen caverns he said were capable of hiding rockets.

Caves near Santiago de Las Vegas, Miro Cardona said, "have been dried, covered inside with concrete, and equipped with railroad tracks."

Three caves in Oriente Province, he added, ring the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo.

The first group of refugees to arrive by boat since the U.S. arms blockade said "there was a mass flight of militiamen to the hills as soon as people learned about the blockade."

Jose Rodriguez Padron, fishermen of Caibarien, Cuba, whose sailboat with five persons slipped past Fidel Castro's shore patrol and the American blockade, said "Cubans were happy as on a fiesta day when they heard about the blockade. We thought the days of the Communists were numbered."

Rodriguez and his group were sighted on a reef near Bimini, the Bahamas, by a skindiving group including E. Bill Behre, New York City.

The refugees were exhausted and without food and water. The skindivers towed them until a Coast Guard boat met them and took the Cubans to Miami.

Steel Picture Looks Brighter

Carmakers Order
Extra Tonnage

CLEVELAND (AP)—The steel picture for the fourth quarter looks brighter because of stepped up buying by automakers, Steel magazine reported today.

To meet the demand for new cars, carmakers have increased production and are ordering extra steel tonnage and asking suppliers to ship some of their December steel ahead of schedule, said Steel, adding:

"There's a good chance for a continued uptrend in steel production if new car sales continue at last month's record pace (722,886) and automakers build as many cars as they've tentatively programmed for November (660,000 to 700,000)."

The national journal of metalworking also noted increased buying by other steel users.

"Pressure for quick deliveries is mounting," the publication said—and that suggests inventories are returning to normal levels. Between now and year-end, stocks probably will be cut by an additional 1 million tons. Liquidation will end by Dec. 31, with stocks between 8 and 9 million tons."

Steel output this week is expected to climb slightly higher than poured last week. Production then was up 1.2 per cent from the previous week.

The price-fighting problem will continue in 1963, according to the magazine's survey of 7,500 metalworking managers. It found 92 per cent of the respondents cited the profit squeeze, price fighting, and what they called excessive union demands as the top problems their companies would face next year.

Lack of buying interest on domestic and export accounts is reflected in a new drop of 33 cents to $24 a ton in steel's composite on No. 1 heavy melting steel.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

The temperature climbed to 60 at Cincinnati Sunday afternoon for the highest reading over Ohio.

This morning, temperatures were at the freezing mark over the central counties and a little warmer over the northern and Zanesville had 32, Cleveland 40, Toledo 36 and Cincinnati 41.

The morning weather map shows a low pressure area from Indiana to Tennessee. Clouds and rain developing around the low had reached Southern and Central Indiana by daybreak, and conditions appeared favorable for some rain over the southern and central counties of Ohio today with an outside chance of some sprinkles reaching the northern part of the state.

After a few hours of light rain or drizzle late today and early tonight, clearing weather with mild afternoon temperatures are indicated for Tuesday.

The next period of showers is expected Thursday.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average near to a little above normal. Normal high upper 40s, normal low 31-35. No important day-to-day temperature changes through Saturday. Rainfall will total about one-fourth inch in showers about Thursday.

SOUTHERN AND CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high 51-56, normal low 34-37. Only minor day-to-day changes. Rainfall will total one-fourth to one-half inch mainly east tonight and Tuesday and during latter part of week.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Last week's elections demonstrated once again that the Republican party nationally is strictly a minority party.

The voters, as they have for 30 years with only two exceptions, showed no confidence in letting them run Congress.

But, if it's comfort to the Republicans, the Democrats are a kind of political myth. They parade under one banner, but are sharply and painfully divided into Northern and Southern Democrats.

In short, the American political party system is all gummed up. Before election Democrats controlled Congress by overwhelming majorities. After election they still had overwhelming majorities in both houses. All the election did was confirm their control.

The Democrats even gained four Senate seats while the Republicans were able to capture only two in the House. Now the score in the Senate is 68 to 32 for the Democrats and, in the House, 259 to 176.

There was the usual deluge of post-election analyses. This time the emphasis was on whether President Kennedy, who had asked for even more Democrats, could be considered a winner or loser.

There was only one real loser: the Republicans. They got one more crushing defeat. In the 16 national elections since 1932 the voters have given the Republicans a majority in Congress only twice: in 1946 and 1952.

In 1946 there was wide discontent with shortages and the remnants of wartime controls. In 1952 President Eisenhower carried his party to victory with him on his sturdy coattails.

But the voters quickly showed (a) that they made a distinction between Eisenhower and his fellow-Republicans and (b) that they lacked confidence in Republican control of Congress.

They did it by putting the Democrats in control in the very next election, 1954, and every election since, including 1956 when they again elected Eisenhower in a huge turnout.

Painful as it must be to Republicans, this is not all. Even in the states the voters show a sharp preference for Democrats, as they did this year in the gubernatorial races by electing more than twice as many Democrats as Republicans.

A foreigner looking at the election returns might be mystified. While there are liberals in both parties, more among the Democrats than among the Republicans the broad base of both parties is conservative.

This is not all that makes for confusion to anyone looking for clear-cut differences between the parties. There is also a deep and damaging cleavage within the Democratic party between North and South.

The Southern Democrats are not only as conservative as the Republicans.

It was because they deserted Kennedy's leadership time and again to vote with Republicans against him that the President went out urging the election of more Democrats.

What he was looking for was more liberal Democrats to offset both the conservative Republicans and the conservative Democrats.

His campaigning was an indirect admission that even though the Democrats in Congress far outnumbered Republicans he still didn't feel he could get his programs unless he could get more Democrats, and liberal ones at that.

What the country really has is two parties that don't operate unilaterally and conservatives.

If there could be a political rearrangement through which there would be a clear distinction between the two groups—liberals and conservatives—and perhaps under new names the voters would be able to give a sharper indication of which way they want to go.

But the American political system is slow to change—even change names—so any prospect for a new alignment looks more like a problem for the voters of the 21st century to think about.

Pope John XXIII advised 240 juvenile delinquents at a Rome reform school to forget the past and present, and have confidence in the Lord.

The pontiff's eyes welled with tears at times during his visit to the 200-year-old Gabelli Institute.

He advised the inmates of the reform school and others brought in from another institution to look to the future. He also advised them that "if you want to succeed, you must also know how to obey."

King Gustaf VI of Sweden was lavished with affection and gifts at Stockholm as he reached 80. Thirteen couriers, who in relays had covered a total of 7,800 miles, puffed into the palace bringing birthday greetings to the sports-minded monarch from athletic organizations in all parts of the kingdom.

The Swedish people gave the king a bank book with a deposit of 5 million crowns—about $1 million. The money, collected by popular subscription, will go into the king's Royal Foundation which distributes grants and scholarships to Swedish artists and scientists.

Jean Monnet of France, one of the leading forces in developing the European Common Market, said a partnership between the United States and the market could force the Soviet Union to abandon its expansionist policy.

In a filmed television interview—CBS—"Washington Report" released in Washington, he also said in an apparent reference to the Cuban crisis, that "I think we have been very close to world catastrophe."

He said, however, that the opportunity exists for creating conditions that will lead to peace.

President Kennedy acted as his own chauffeur as he and his wife took guests on the six-mile trip from their leased estate, Glen Ora to the site of their incomplete new home on Rattlesnake Mountain near the village of Atoka, Va.

Kennedy was again at the wheel of a station wagon on the return trip from the ranch-type home the Kennedys plan to use as a weekend retreat beginning in early spring.

Ag Secretary Tells Dairymen To Resolve Their Differences

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman urged dairy industry groups today to resolve differences over a national dairy program or face the threat of loss of government assistance.

Freeman said the present federal dairy stabilization program is no good because it provides dairymen with inadequate incomes and forces the government to buy large quantities of surplus dairy products at great cost.

In a talk prepared for a convention of the National Milk Producers Federation, Freeman said the answer to the dairy problem was to be found in a program that would end surplus milk production.

He said such a program might be based on mandatory controls or on government payments to dairymen who voluntarily reduce their dairy output.

Freeman said the Kennedy administration was not yet ready to recommend a solution. However, during the last Congress it recommended mandatory controls which were rejected.

"The shift in congressional seats from rural-dominated to city and urban-dominated districts should make us all stop and think," the secretary said. "It is obvious that without the support of urban and city congressmen, there will be no new dairy program. And should these congressmen become convinced that no answer can be found to the problem in dairying, they have the power to end the dairy program and dairy price supports."

Freeman said that if that happened, there would be a sharp drop in dairy prices and income.

"As a practical matter, we do not have the political muscle to continue the present program for long. The election a week ago made that clear. . . . You and other dairy organizations as well as the Department of Agriculture have a responsibility to dairy farmers to seek a workable program."

Broadstreet Choir Scheduled Nov. 18

The Broad Street Presbyterian Church will present The Broadstreet Choir. Richard C Johnston, director, and Mrs. Walter Lange, organist, in a 75th Anniversary Celebration Concert at the church, 760 E. Broad, Nov. 18 at 8 p. m. The public is invited.

The Choir will sing "Jesu, Priceless Treasure" by J. S. Bach, and "The Wall of Heaven, O Saviour Rend" by Johannes Brahms. Mrs. Lange will play "Grande Piece Symphonique" by Cesar Franck.

Steel Picture Looks Brighter

Carmakers Order
Extra Tonnage

CLEVELAND (AP)—The steel picture for the fourth quarter looks brighter because of stepped up buying by automakers, Steel magazine reported today.

To meet the demand for new cars, carmakers have increased production and are ordering extra steel tonnage and asking suppliers to ship some of their December steel ahead of schedule, said Steel, adding:

"There's a good chance for a continued uptrend in steel production if new car sales continue at last month's record pace (722,886) and automakers build as many cars as they've tentatively programmed for November (660,000 to 700,000)."

The national journal of metalworking also noted increased buying by other steel users.

"Pressure for quick deliveries is mounting," the publication said—and that suggests inventories are returning to normal levels. Between now and year-end, stocks probably will be cut by an additional 1 million tons. Liquidation will end by Dec. 31, with stocks between 8 and 9 million tons."

Steel output this week is expected to climb slightly higher than poured last week. Production then was up 1.2 per cent from the previous week.

The price-fighting problem will continue in 1963, according to the magazine's survey of 7,500 metalworking managers. It found 92 per cent of the respondents cited the profit squeeze, price fighting, and what they called excessive union demands as the top problems their companies would face next year.

Lack of buying interest on domestic and export accounts is reflected in a new drop of 33 cents to $24 a ton in steel's composite on No. 1 heavy melting steel.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

The temperature climbed to 60 at Cincinnati Sunday afternoon for the highest reading over Ohio.

This morning, temperatures were at the freezing mark over the central counties and a little warmer over the northern and Zanesville had 32, Cleveland 40, Toledo 36 and Cincinnati 41.

The morning weather map shows a low pressure area from Indiana to Tennessee. Clouds and rain developing around the low had reached Southern and Central Indiana by daybreak, and conditions appeared favorable for some rain over the southern and central counties of Ohio today with an outside chance of some sprinkles reaching the northern part of the state.

After a few hours of light rain or drizzle late today and early tonight, clearing weather with mild afternoon temperatures are indicated for Tuesday.

The next period of showers is expected Thursday.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average near to a little above normal. Normal high upper 40s, normal low 31-35. No important day-to-day temperature changes through Saturday. Rainfall will total about one-fourth inch in showers about Thursday.

SOUTHERN AND CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average near normal. Normal high 51-56, normal low 34-37. Only minor day-to-day changes. Rainfall will total one-fourth to one-half inch mainly late tonight and Tuesday and during latter part of week.

Yeggs Grab $1,000 From Cleveland Bakery

CLEVELAND (AP)—Burglars cut the door off a floor safe with torches at the Star Baking Co. in suburban Oakwood and escaped with approximately $1,000, police reported Sunday. An employee reporting for work discovered the theft and a pry bar the thieves left behind. Police said there were no signs of forcible entry to the building.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Last week's elections demonstrated once again that the Republican party nationally is strictly a minority party.

The voters, as they have for 30 years with only two exceptions, showed no confidence in letting them run Congress.

But, if it's comfort to the Republicans, the Democrats are a kind of political myth. They parade under one banner, but are sharply and painfully divided into Northern and Southern Democrats.

In short, the American political party system is all gummed up. Before election Democrats controlled Congress by overwhelming majorities. After election they still had overwhelming majorities in both houses. All the election did was confirm their control.

The Democrats even gained four Senate seats while the Republicans were able to capture only two in the House. Now the score in the Senate is 68 to 32 for the Democrats and, in the House, 259 to 176.

There was the usual deluge of post-election analyses. This time the emphasis was on whether President Kennedy, who had asked for even more Democrats, could be considered a winner or loser.

There was only one real loser: the Republicans. They got one more crushing defeat. In the 16 national elections since 1932 the voters have given the Republicans a majority in Congress only twice: in 1946 and 1952.

In 1946 there was wide discontent with shortages and the remnants of wartime controls. In 1952 President Eisenhower carried his party to victory with him on his sturdy coattails.

But the voters quickly showed (a) that they made a distinction between Eisenhower and his fellow-low-Republicans and (b) that they lacked confidence in Republican control of Congress.

They did it by putting the Democrats in control in the very next election, 1954, and every election since, including 1956 when they again elected Eisenhower in a huge turnout.

Painful as it must be to Republicans, this is not all. Even in the states the voters show a sharp preference for Democrats, as they did this year in the gubernatorial races by electing more than twice as many Democrats as Republicans.

A foreigner looking at the election returns might be mystified. While there are liberals in both parties, more among the Democrats than among the Republicans the broad base of both parties is conservative.

This is not all that makes for confusion to anyone looking for clear-cut differences between the parties. There is also a deep and damaging cleavage within the Democratic party between North and South.

The Southern Democrats are not only as conservative as the Republicans.

It was because they deserted Kennedy's leadership time and again to vote with Republicans against him that the President went out urging the election of more Democrats.

What he was looking for was more liberal Democrats to offset both the conservative Republicans and the conservative Democrats.

His campaigning was an indirect admission that even though the Democrats in Congress far outnumbered Republicans he still didn't feel he could get his programs unless he could get more Democrats, and liberal ones at that.

What the country really has is two parties that don't operate unilaterally and conservatives.

If there could be a political rearrangement through which there would be a clear distinction between the two groups — liberals and conservatives — and perhaps under new names the voters would be able to give a sharper indication of which way they want to go.

But the American political system is slow to change — even change names — so any prospect for a new alignment looks more like a problem for the voters of the 21st century to think about.

The Swedish people gave the king a bank book with a deposit of 5 million crowns—about $1 million. The money, collected by popular subscription, will go into the king's Royal Foundation which distributes grants and scholarships to Swedish artists and scientists.

Jean Monnet of France, one of the leading forces in developing the European Common Market, said a partnership between the United States and the market could force the Soviet Union to abandon its expansionist policy.

In a filmed television interview—CBS—"Washington Report" released in Washington, he also said in an apparent reference to the Cuban crisis, that "I think we have been very close to world catastrophe."

He said, however, that the opportunity exists for creating conditions that will lead to peace. Cloak for Imperialism

The other day Washington received another in a series of visits by chiefs of African states that have received their freedom recently. Sekou Toure, president of the Republic of Guinea, called at the White House.

Two years ago Toure would have received something of a chilly welcome. In fact, he probably would not have come. At that time he was considered the leader of one of the communist bloc's first major stepping stones into central Africa.

Today Toure has at least a partial blessing from the U. S. government. A few months ago he ousted the Soviet ambassador to Guinea and most of the "technicians" who had accompanied the envoy to Africa.

In addition, about 60 French communist teachers were deported; a communist bookstore distributing propaganda was closed; a law was passed guaranteeing foreign investments in Guinea joined the International Monetary Fund, and the nation voted against the Soviet bloc on two key issues in last winter's UN session.

Toure still considers himself a follower of Marxism. But he'll have nothing to do with the Russian version because he has discovered what many other peoples have found out (many of them too late), that communism is merely a cloak for Soviet imperialism which the Russians will promote at whatever cost.

Shortcoming in Education

Since World War II the American educational system has developed until it has become an industry. Unlike other industries, however, its product is an intangible and its dividend hard to assess. One thing is obvious: there is a considerable amount of waste, not only of money but of human material.

In past generations education was something for which the individual, if he wanted it, had to work. It was not arrayed for him like a banquet table from which he could pick and choose, or reject altogether.

We are the first generation to believe that discipline is wicked, cruel or harsh, that the easy way is the best way. From this has sprung worship of the man who is "smart" rather than clever.

In its free abundance our education system has overlooked a basic fact of human nature. The over-generous man forfeits respect by his gifts and in the end wins only contempt. And it is so with anything that is given too freely.

The error lies in the belief that all children, whatever their latent abilities, will benefit greatly if exposed to teaching along enough. To expose all to the same fare under the mistaken idea that it is "equal opportunity for all" is foolish. It should be recognized that there are children who cannot learn certain subjects.

Not everyone can become a doctor, a scientist, a lawyer or a teacher. Full, happy and useful lives can be lived outside the strict limits of intellectual accomplishment. Too many competent teachers waste their hours trying to force knowledge into minds that do not want to receive it.

Our education system has become an industry more concerned with quantity than quality, and so it is self-defeatist. It carries mediocrities and dullards who become bored and resentful because they are not permitted to get into the groove in life for which they are fitted and where they would be content.

This is a simple fact, but we overlook it, and the price we pay is high in wasted time, human material and money.

Can You Remember When?

What were the old days really like? Well, they are at least a part of you if you can remember when: A dime-a-dance girl didn't mind two for a nickel. If you were a tancy stepper.

The customer was always right. If he failed to return, his absence had a threat of importance.

No kid who wanted to get into the circus free could ever agree on how many buckets of water it took to fill an elephant.

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Danny Kaye is probably the most talented and endearing clown currently practicing his art. Lucille Ball is generally considered to be our pre-eminent comedienne. Throw them together before the television cameras, and the result is bound to be just what it was Sunday night: a delight.

In the hour-long NBC special, Kaye danced, sang and told a droll story in a perfect imitation of Maurice Chevalier's English accent. Miss Ball turned up doing a tentative twist and even essayed a song. She also attempted a few imitations. If she did not quite capture her subjects—Judy Garland, Carol Channing and Marlene Dietrich—it was much funnier that way.

The hour went by on running feet, which doesn't happen very often these days.

NBC's "Chet Huntley Reporting" Tuesday night will be a re-evaluation of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal 30 years after his first election as president. Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THEY'RE MAKING a movie of Charles Finney's fascinating, off-beat book called "The Circus of Dr. Lao." The good doctor was an authentic wizard in his spare time and his sideshow included several celebrated big shots from mythology. One of them was Medusa, and the customers were solemnly warned not to look her in the eye, lest they be turned to stones.

A lady from Iowa ignored the injunction one day and was promptly transformed as advertised. Her husband, properly disturbed, started to drag her out of the sideshow tent when an attendant rushed up and bawled, "Hey, you can't take that statue out of here." To which, naturally, the husband replied angrily, "That ain't no statue. That's my wife!"

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

Could you have diabetes? You might. Two people in every hundred do and one of these doesn't know it.

Normally, body cells burn sugar for energy, but if you have diabetes, you lack enough insulin to ease sugar into cells. Excess sugar accumulates in your blood stream and soon pours over the dam and out through the kidneys.

Gallons of water gush out to dilute all this sugar. To prevent dehydration you have to tank up continually.

Brain cells feel hungry and starved. Sugar is the only fuel they can use.

Watch out for these danger signals: constant thirst, hunger and frequent bladder-emptying.

To manufacture energy now, you have to burn your own fat. As fat breaks down, sick-making acids flood your system. Now your delicately balanced body chemistry topples and chemical confusion reigns. Resistance plummets.

More danger signals: unexplained weight loss, easy tiring, frequent infections, slow healing.

When enough sick-making acids accumulate, you lapse into a dangerous—and sometimes fatal—coma.

Other complications bring on itching and eye trouble. Fingers and toes tingle painfully and turn numb.

Diabetes may strike anyone! If you're overweight or over 40, you're especially vulnerable. Women are more vulnerable than men—perhaps because they're more often overweight.

A Bit of Nonsense

By George Sokolsky

In a discussion on the abolition of prayers in the schools, Will Maslow of the American Jewish Congress is reported to have said that the separation of church and state was America's great contribution to the art of government and the creation of civil harmony.

This is, of course, nonsense. Had Maslow said that he regards the separation of church and state as one American contribution to the art of government, it would have been sufficient. When he said "America's great contribution," he was guilty of exaggeration and lack of understanding either of the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution of the United States. Jefferson would probably have regarded freedom of choice as the supreme contribution in his generation to the art of government.

It is an accepted but wholly unprovable statement that the Constitution anywhere provides for the separation of church and state, or separation of nation from religion. The First Amendment actually says nothing on the subject, although it does object to the "establishment" of a religion, which referring to the language of the period, has nothing to do with separation of church and state.

Maslow further says: "More than other groups in the United States, American Jewry looks to be (sic) unimpaired and uncompromised preservation of the separation for its ultimate security."

How can Maslow speak for American Jewry? He heads a secular organization with which many American Jews have no association. He is one of many secular self-indulgent spokesmen. Among the rabbis, there are differences of opinion on school prayer. For instance, Dr. Immanuel Jakobovits, rabbi of the Fifth Avenue synagogue, said of this controversy:

"By allying themselves with the rampant forces of atheism and secularism, these (Jewish) organizations were bound to expose the Jewish community to the charge of undermining the religious foundations of our society, whatever the constitutional legalities in support of such a position."

This is the view of many American Jews who regard secular organizations as assuming to speak for the Jews of this country when they only have an obligation to speak for themselves.

Some of these organizations are still more concerned with Hitler than they are with religious Judaism which survives while secularism disappears as meaningless. An atheist cannot be a Jew because the essence of Judaism is the belief in God and belief in prayer to Him and to the blessings that come as His bounty to men and women.

Maslow states:

"Of all religious groups in our country, the Jewish community—whose hallowed traditions include a special language to pray in—and even a special form of garb to wear during prayer—should oppose the indiscriminate imposition on all school children of 22 words that are not in the Jewish language of prayer..."

This is an inaccurate statement. Maslow refers only to Orthodox Jews. But there are also Conservative and Reform Jews in increasingly large numbers. Most of the original Jewish prayers were in Hebrew, but some were in Aramaic. In the 10th and 11th Centuries, some were in Arabic. There have been prayers in all languages, particularly in Yiddish (mostly for women) and in Ladino in Mediterranean countries. In Reform synagogues, the prayers are both in English and in Hebrew.

The prayer shawl is used in Orthodox and in some Conservative synagogues. It has many forms and embroideries. Its major religious symbol is the fringe at each corner to remind its wearer of the time when the Jews were slaves in Egypt. It is not essential to wear the prayer shawl for prayer. There are many circumstances which call men together to pray in a home. Reform Jews generally do not wear a prayer shawl. There are 613 blessings to be said on various occasions; most of which are no longer employed, such as "Blessed art Thou, Oh Lord our God, for Thou hast not made me a woman."

Secularists in all religions fall back on religious rites to prove their points, but much more is needed than that. If Maslow wants Jews truly to live as their fathers did in the Polish shtetel (village), then there is a prayer for every act, for everything. And if he truly believes in prayer, why should not children employ the universal prayer, spoken by all sects of Jews and Christians:

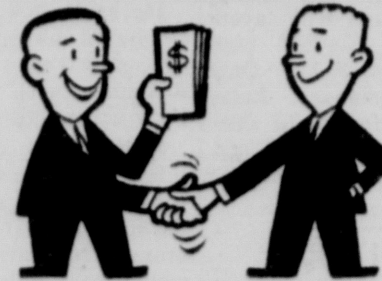

"Thou shalt love thy God with all thy heart and all thy soul and all thy might," etc.

Cloak for Imperialism

The other day Washington received another in a series of visits by chiefs of African states that have received their freedom recently. Sekou Toure, president of the Republic of Guinea, called at the White House.

Two years ago Toure would have received something of a chilly welcome. In fact, he probably would not have come. At that time he was considered the leader of one of the communist bloc's first major stepping stones into central Africa.

Today Toure has at least a partial blessing from the U. S. government. A few months ago he ousted the Soviet ambassador to Guinea and most of the "technicians" who had accompanied the envoy to Africa.

Shortcoming in Education

Since World War II the American educational system has developed until it has become an industry. Unlike other industries, however, its product is an intangible and its dividend hard to assess. One thing is obvious: there is a considerable amount of waste, not only of money but of human material.

In past generations education was something for which the individual, if he wanted it, had to work. It was not arrayed for him like a banquet table from which he could pick and choose, or reject altogether.

We are the first generation to believe that discipline is wicked, cruel or harsh, that the easy way is the best way. From this has sprung worship of the man who is "smart" rather than clever.

In its free abundance our education system has overlooked a basic fact of human nature. The over-generous man forfeits respect by his gifts and in the end wins only contempt. And it is so with anything that is given too freely.

The error lies in the belief that all chil-

In addition, about 60 French communist teachers were deported; a communist bookstore distributing propaganda was closed; a law was passed guaranteeing foreign investments Guinea joined the International Monetary Fund, and the nation voted against the Soviet bloc on two key issues in last winter's UN session.

Toure still considers himself a follower of Marxism. But he'll have nothing to do with the Russian version because he has discovered what many other peoples have found out (many of them too late), that communism is merely a cloak for Soviet imperialism which the Russians will promote at whatever cost.

dren, whatever their latent abilities, will benefit greatly if exposed to teaching along enough. To expose all to the same fare under the mistaken idea that it is "equal opportunity for all" is foolish. It should be recognized that there are children who cannot learn certain subjects.

Not everyone can become a doctor, a scientist, a lawyer or a teacher. Full, happy and useful lives can be lived outside the strict limits of intellectual accomplishment. Too many competent teachers waste their hours trying to force knowledge into minds that do not want to receive it.

Our education system has become an industry more concerned with quantity than quality, and so it is self-defeating. It carries mediocrities and dullards who become bored and resentful because they are not permitted to get into the groove in life for which they are fitted and where they would be content.

This is a simple fact, but we overlook it, and the price we pay is high in wasted time, human material and money.

Can You Remember When?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Everybody says it was different in the old days.

What were the old days really like? Well, they are at least a part of you if you can remember when: A dimeadance girl didn't mind two for a nickel. If you were a fancy stepper.

The customer was always right. If he failed to return, his absence had a threat of importance.

No kid who wanted to get into the circus free could ever agree on how many buckets of water it took to fill an elephant.

NEW YORK (AP)—Danny Kaye is probably the most talented and endearing clown currently practicing his art. Lucille Ball is generally conceded to be our pre-eminent comedienne. Throw them together before the television cameras, and the result is bound to be just what it was Sunday night: a delight.

In the hour-long NBC special, Kaye danced, sang and told a droll story in a perfect imitation of Maurice Chevalier's English accent. Miss Ball turned up doing a tentative twist and even essayed a song. She also attempted a few imitations. If she did not quite capture her subjects—Judy Garland, Carol Channing and Marlene Dietrich—it was much funnier that way.

The hour went by on running feet, which doesn't happen very often these days.

NBC's "Chet Huntley Reporting" Tuesday night will be a re-evaluation of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal 30 years after his first election as president. Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THEY'RE MAKING a movie of Charles Finney's fascinating, off-beat book called "The Circus of Dr. Lao." The good doctor was an authentic wizard in his spare time and his sideshow included several celebrated bigshots from mythology. One of them was Medusa, and the customers were solemnly warned not to look her in the eye, lest they be turned to stones.

A lady from Iowa ignored the injunction one day and was promptly transformed as advertised. Her husband, properly disturbed, started to drag her out of the sideshow tent when an attendant rushed up and bawled, "Hey, you can't take that statue out of here."

To which, naturally, the husband replied angrily, "That ain't no statue. That's my wife!"

A famous efficiency expert died and was accorded a magnificent funeral. The pallbearers were carrying the casket down the steps of the church when suddenly the lid popped open and the deceased sat up to advise, "If you'd put this casket on wheels, you could lay off four men."

When Jim Curley was mayor of Boston, he ruled his ward-healers with an iron hand. A reporter once asked him, "is it true that you'd take the false teeth out of the mouths of your followers if they crossed you up?" "Why not?" answered Curley candidly. "I put them there, didn't I?"

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

Could you have diabetes?

You might. Two people in every hundred do and one of these doesn't know it.

Normally, body cells burn sugar for energy, but if you have diabetes, you lack enough insulin to ease sugar into cells. Excess sugar accumulates in your blood stream and soon pours over the dam and out through the kidneys.

Gallons of water gush out to dilute all this sugar. To prevent dehydration you have to tank up continually.

Brain cells feel hungry and starved. Sugar is the only fuel they can use.

Watch out for these danger signals: constant thirst, hunger and frequent bladder-emptying.

To manufacture energy now, you have to burn your own fat. As fat breaks down, sick-making acids flood your system. Now your delicately-balanced body chemistry topples and chemical confusion reigns. Resistance plummets.

More danger signals: unexplained weight loss, easy tiring, frequent infections, slow healing.

When enough sick-making acids accumulate, you lapse into a dangerous—and sometimes fatal—coma.

Other complications bring on itching and eye trouble. Fingers and toes tingle painfully and turn numb.

Diabetes may strike anyone!

If you're overweight or over 40, you're especially vulnerable. Women are more vulnerable than men—perhaps because they're more often overweight.

In spite of all this, diabetes may rage without a single danger signal—until complications set in and threaten life.

A simple, quick painless test can detect diabetes and prevent this. Many communities offer this test free during Diabetes Detection Week in November. Does yours?

If not, ask your doctor to test everyone in the family.

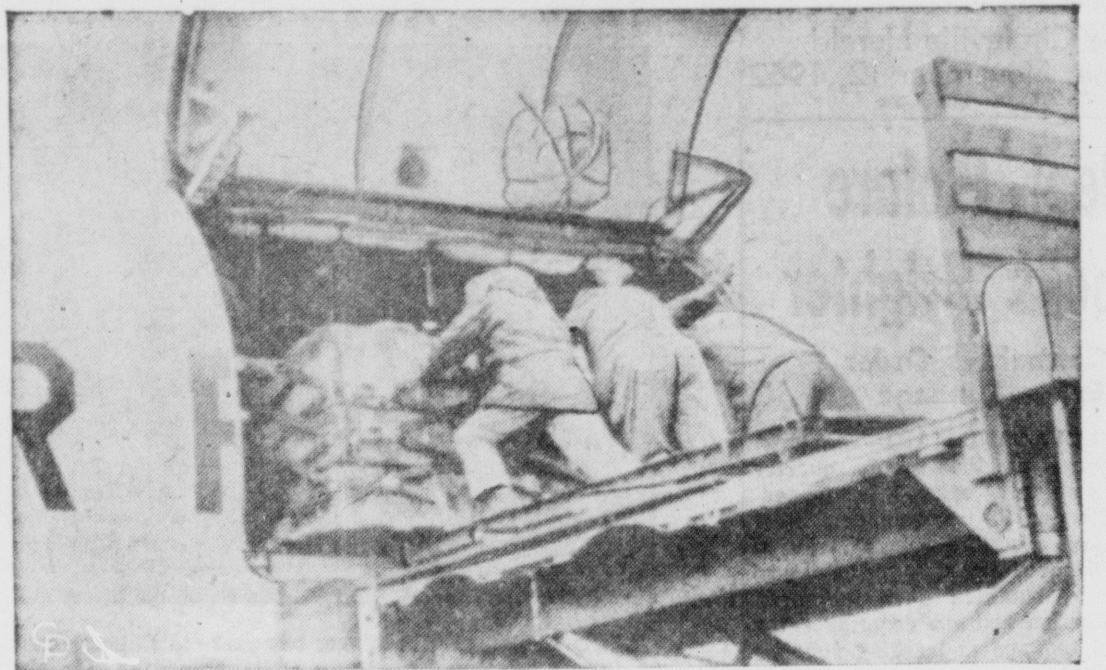

Once detected, diabetes can be controlled. But undiscovered diabetes is dynamite; it may explode any time.

Don't take chances.

Be safe! Be sure! Be tested!

A Bit of Nonsense

By George Sokolsky

In a discussion on the abolition of prayers in the schools, Will Maslow of the American Jewish Congress is reported to have said that the separation of church and state was America's great contribution to the art of government and the creation of civil harmony.

This is, of course, nonsense. Had Maslow said that he regards the separation of church and state as one American contribution to the art of government, it would have been sufficient. When he said "America's great contribution," he was guilty of exaggeration and lack of understanding either of the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution of the United States. Jefferson would probably have regarded freedom of choice as the supreme contribution in his generation to the art of government.

It is an accepted but wholly unprovable statement that the Constitution anywhere provides for the separation of church and state, or separation of nation from religion. The First Amendment actually says nothing on the subject, although it does object to the "establishment" of a religion, which referring to the language of the period, has nothing to do with separation of church and state.

Maslow further says: "More than other groups in the United States, American Jewry looks to be (sic) unimpaired and uncompromised preservation of the separation for its ultimate security."

How can Maslow speak for American Jewry? He heads a secular organization with which many American Jews have no association. He is one of many secular self-indulgent spokesmen. Among the rabbis, there are differences of opinion on school prayer. For instance, Dr. Immanuel Jakobovits, rabbi of the Fifth Avenue synagogue, said of this controversy:

"By allying themselves with the rampant forces of atheism and secularism, these (Jewish) organizations were bound to expose the Jewish community to the charge of undermining the religious foundation of our society, whatever the constitutional legalities in support of such a position."

This is the view of many American Jews who regard secular organizations as assuming to speak for the Jews of this country when they only have an obligation to speak for themselves.

Some of these organizations are still more concerned with Hitler than they are with religious Judaism which survives while secularism disappears as meaningless. An atheist cannot be a Jew because the essence of Judaism is the belief in God and belief in prayer to Him and to the blessings that come as His bounty to men and women.

The better than passing marks

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, Nov. 12, the 316th day of 1962. There are 49 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this day in 1936, the Golden Gate Bridge between San Francisco and Oakland, Calif., was dedicated and opened to traffic. The bridge is the longest in the world over navigable water.

On this day: In 1770, the jurist and poet who wrote "Hail Columbia"—Joseph Hopkinson—was born in Philadelphia.

In 1812, Napoleon Bonaparte's armies reached the Russian city of Smolensk in their retreat from Moscow.

In 1921, the conference on limitation of armaments opened in Washington.

In 1937, the Chinese city of Shanghai fell to Japanese invaders.

In 1943, former U.S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

Today's birthdays: Princess Grace of Monaco is 33. Actress Kim Hunter is 40.

Thought for today: There never was in the world two opinions alike, no more than most universal quality is diversity.—Montaigne.

Jury Frees Cleric In KofC Libel Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A jury has acquitted a minister accused of publishing a false Knights of Columbus oath.

The Rev. Walter L. King of the Church of the Nazarine, independent, at Finleyville, Pa., was cleared of criminal libel charges by an Allegheny County Court jury Friday, but he was directed to pay the court costs.

As editor of a church pamphlet "Voice of the Nazarene," he was accused of printing a bogus K. of C. oath vowing religious hatred. The Rev. Mr. King testified he believed the oath to be a correct version when it was printed, but he said that after hearing testimony "I feel that it is not the oath."

The Knights of Columbus is a Roman Catholic fraternal group.

State Road Memorial Urged for Composers

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Otterbein College's board of trustees has adopted a resolution seeking action by the state legislature to name Ohio 3 between Mount Vernon and Westerville the "Emmett - Hanby Memorial Highway" in honor of two composers from this area.

The board hopes to honor Dan Emmett, the Mount Vernon native who composed the song "Dixie," and Benjamin Hanby, an Otterbein graduate who wrote "My Darling Nellie Gray."

sis, in the opinion of the U.S. Savings & Loan League. Although a shooting war apparently has been avoided, the league said, the situation indicates greater defense spending.

A survey indicated that manufacturers plan to step up their spending on new plants and improvements in 1963 to $38.15 billion, a boost of three per cent over their investment of $37.16 billion this year.

In some quarters this was interpreted as dimming prospects of a recession next year, although the increase wasn't considered big enough to propel the economy out of a sluggish recovery pace.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York sees consumer spending as the key to future economic activity.

The retail picture for the Christmas season looks good, reported the National Retail Merchants Association. It said a survey of stores showed seven out of 10 responding merchants expecting sales to rise about four per cent over last year.

New car sales in October totaled 722,886, exceeding the old one-month record of 702,726 set in April 1955, the best sales year in the industry's history. Sales in October 1961 totaled 535,911.

To meet the demand, carmakers stepped up production during the week to an estimated 164,000 passenger cars, a record for the year for the fourth consecutive week. Output the previous week was 163,029 and for a year ago 152,376.

New orders for steel still lagged. Major users continued to depend on their inventories and the fact that they could get needed supplies through rush orders.

Steel output during the week amounted to 1,778,000 tons, up only six-tenths of one per cent from the previous week.

Stock sales for the week totaled 17,413,545 shares, compared with 20,072,955 the previous week and 19,282,600 for the comparable week a year ago. Bond sales totaled $21,098,000 par value, compared with $23,899,000 a week ago and $31,355,600 for the comparable 1961 week.

Ohio Solon-Elect Follows Both Dad's, Mom's Footsteps

CLEVELAND (AP)—Oliver P. Bolton is following not only in his father's footsteps, but his mother's as well. And it makes for a unique situation in Congress.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton, a spy 77, won her 13th election to Congress Tuesday. Her son, a comebacking two-term congressman who bowed out in 1956 because of a heart ailment, defeated Democratic incumbent Robert E. Cook by 1,500 votes in the adjoining Northeast Ohio area 11th District.

Both Boltons are Republicans and the only mother and son combination in history of Congress.

Oliver "paddles his own canoe," says Mrs. Bolton, asked if her son follows her voting patterns.

"With a busy session coming up, I don't know how much I'll be able to see my son," said the venerable congresswoman, who will be the senior GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. "But we will be working in the same city, at least, and should get together more than we have in Ohio."

Bolton, 45, had not been idle before announcing his candidacy eight months ago. He practiced law and published the Dover (Ohio) Daily Reporter, the Wesa Lake County News-Herald of nearby Willoughby and the Parma News, a suburban weekly.

Declaring his heart condition has healed completely, Bolton added: "I'm in excellent shape, except for the strains of the campaign, and ready to go."

Mrs. Bolton has three sons. Oliver is the youngest.

Bolton says his interests are in economic affairs. "Mother is much more internationally-minded," he adds.

Mrs. Bolton, often called the richest woman in Congress, was married in 1907 to Chester C. Bolton, who served five terms in Congress. When he died in October 1939, his wife won his seat in a special election. Her latest triumph was by a better than 2-1 margin.

Dayton Flyer News Is Very Red-Faced

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—There are some red faces at the University of Dayton.

An airplane which has been used in the masthead of the student newspaper, the Flyer News, for more than a year has been identified as a Russian Fiddler long-range interceptor.

The drawing by a student had been believed an original, but actually is a drawing of the Soviet plane which made its first public appearance in Moscow in July 1961.

University officials said they would confer with students about changing the masthead.

Ohio Corn Yield Set At 75 Bushels to Acre

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Department of Agriculture has given these 1962 crop estimates for Ohio:

Corn grown for grain, 75 bushels per acre for total of 197,850,000 bushels; soybeans for beans, 25 bushels per acre and production of 44,825,000 bushels; tobacco, 1,636 pounds per acre for production of 24,210,000 pounds; sugar beets, 14 tons per acre and production of 378,000 tons; potatoes, fall crop, 180 hundredweight per acre and production of 1,800,000 bushels; burley tobacco, 17,490,000 pounds.

What you should know about Early American furniture:

Early American (sometimes called American Colonial) is a term applied rather loosely to all furniture types produced or used in the American colonies. Actually it embraces a wide range of designs including pieces home-crafted by frontiersmen as well as elegant styles imported from Europe at the time.

Through the years, the popularity of Early American furniture has been constant. In recent years there has been a surge of interest about the style. Furniture designers across America are translating the Early American motif into furniture that is fresh and stimulating.

The warm, informal nature of the style complements contemporary casual living and entertaining. Furniture stylists expect the trend toward Early American decor to continue for many years to come.

Ohio Solon-Elect Follows Both Dad's, Mom's Footsteps

CLEVELAND (AP)—Oliver P. Bolton is following not only in his father's footsteps, but his mother's as well. And it makes for a unique situation in Congress.

Rep. Frances P. Bolton, a spry 77, won her 13th election to Congress Tuesday. Her son, a comebacking two-term congressman who bowed out in 1956 because of a heart ailment, defeated Democratic incumbent Robert E. Cook by 1,500 votes in the adjoining Northeast Ohio area 11th District.

Both Boltons are Republicans and the only mother and son combination in history of Congress.

Oliver "paddles his own canoe," says Mrs. Bolton, asked if her son follows her voting patterns.

"With a busy session coming up, I don't know how much I'll be able to see my son," said the venerable congresswoman, who will be the senior GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. "But we will be working in the same city, at least, and should get together more than we have in Ohio."

Bolton, 45, had not been idle before announcing his candidacy eight months ago. He practiced law and published the Dover (Ohio) Daily Reporter, the West Lake County News-Herald of near-by Willoughby and the Parma News, a suburban weekly.

Declaring his heart condition has healed completely, Bolton added: "I'm in excellent shape, except for the strains of the campaign, and ready to go."

Mrs. Bolton has three sons. Oliver is the youngest.

Bolton says his interests are in economic affairs. "Mother is much more internationally-minded," he adds.

Mrs. Bolton, often called the richest woman in Congress, was married in 1907 to Chester C. Bolton, who served five terms in Congress. When he died in October 1939, his wife won his seat in a special election. Her latest triumph was by a better than 2-1 margin.

Dayton Flyer News Is Very Red-Faced

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—There are some red faces at the University of Dayton.

An airplane which has been used in the masthead of the student newspaper, the Flyer News, for more than a year has been identified as a Russian Fiddler long-range interceptor.

The drawing of a student had been believed an original, but actually is a drawing of the Soviet plane which made its first public appearance in Moscow in July 1961.

University officials said they would confer with students about changing the masthead.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, Nov. 12, the 316th day of 1962. There are 49 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this day in 1936, the Golden Gate Bridge between San Francisco and Oakland, Calif., was dedicated and opened to traffic. The bridge is the longest in the world over navigable water.

On this day:
In 1770, the jurist and poet who wrote "Hail Columbia"—Joseph Hopkinson—was born in Philadelphia.

In 1812, Napoleon Bonaparte's armies reached the Russian city of Smolensk in their retreat from Moscow.

In 1921, the conference on limitation of armaments opened in Washington.

In 1937, the Chinese city of Shanghai fell to Japanese invaders.

In 1943, former U.S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.

Today's birthdays:
Princess Grace of Monaco is 33. Actress Kim Hunter is 40.

Jury Frees Cleric In KofC Libel Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A jury has acquitted a minister accused of publishing a false Knights of Columbus oath.

The Rev. Walter L. King of the Church of the Nazarene, independent, at Finleyville, Pa., was cleared of criminal libel charges by an Allegheny County Court jury Friday, but he was directed to pay the court costs.

As editor of a church pamphlet "Voice of the Nazarene," he was accused of printing a bogus K. of C. oath reviling religious hatred.

The Rev. Mr. King testified he believed the oath to be a correct version when it was printed, but he said that after hearing testimony "I feel that it is not the oath."

The Knights of Columbus is a Roman Catholic fraternal group.

State Road Memorial Urged for Composers

WESTERVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Otterbein College's board of trustees has adopted a resolution seeking action by the state legislature to name Ohio 3 between Mount Vernon and Westerville the "Emmett - Hanby Memorial Highway" in honor of two composers from this area.

The board hopes to honor Dan Emmett, the Mount Vernon native who composed the song "Dixie," and Benjamin Hanby, an Otterbein graduate who wrote "My Darling Nellie Gray."

Grange To Meet

Mt. Pleasant Grange will meet 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Members are requested to bring discarded jewelry for the Orient School at the State Hospital there.

are in the form of increased dividends which show that the profit record was generally good despite complaints in some quarters that the economy is sluggish.

Corporate profits are expected to hit or come close to record levels with fourth-quarter prospects generally bright.

Standard & Poor's Corp., a statistical and investment advisory agency, reported that 98 companies declared extra dividends in October, compared with 58 in September and 93 in October 1961. The swelling tide should peak out in December, it said.

The extra dividends to be paid in December will swell the Christmas stockings of millions of investors. This will inject new blood into the economic stream and likely ease any business slowdown that might develop after the first of the year.

More than one million stockholders—a good chunk of the nation's estimated 17 million shareholders—received glad tidings from General Motors Corp., the biggest U.S. manufacturer, the other day.

GM voted a $1.50-a-share year-end dividend, $1 above the usual quarterly rate and 50 cents above the 1961 year-end payout. The stockholders will split a total of about $425 million.

Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey) will sweeten its checks 10 cents a share. Other firms getting ready to pay more include International Nickel Co., Bristol-Myers, Bigelow-Sanford and Singer Manufacturing Co.

Some of the extras are in stock rather than cash. Such a dividend was voted by Chris Craft Industries, Inc., the first for it since 1960.

But there are dark spots in the picture. Fourteen companies cut dividends last month, and there's sure to be a continuing trickle. Two of the reductions were by industrial giants, U.S. Steel Corp. and Bethlehem Steel Corp., top-profits in an industry hard hit by a profit squeeze.

As the year neared an end, even more attention is being directed to the economic outlook for 1963.

Walter Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, said the first half of the year will be a testing period for the economy with either a mild recession or a mild expansion likely to occur.

The possibility of a recession this winter or next spring has been lessened by the Cuban crisis, in the opinion of the U.S. Savings & Loan League. Although a shooting war apparently has been avoided, the league said, the situation indicates greater defense spending.

A survey indicated that manufacturers plan to step up their spending on new plants and improvements in 1963 to $38.15 billion, a boost of three per cent over their investment of $37.16 billion this year.

In some quarters this was interpreted as dimming prospects of a recession next year, although the increase wasn't considered big enough to propel the economy out of a sluggish recovery pace.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York sees consumer spending as the key to future economic activity.

The retail picture for the Christmas season looks good, reported the National Retail Merchants Association. It said a survey of stores showed seven out of 10 responding merchants expecting sales to rise about four per cent over last year.

New car sales in October totaled 722,886, exceeding the old one-month record of 702,726 set in April 1955, the best sales year in the industry's history. Sales in October 1961 totaled 535,011.

To meet the demand, carmakers stepped up production during the week to an estimated 164,000 passenger cars, a record for the year for the fourth consecutive week. Output the previous week was 163,029 and for a year ago 152,376.

New orders for steel still lagged. Major users continued to depend on their inventories and the fact that they could get needed supplies through rush orders.

Steel output during the week amounted to 1,778,000 tons, up only six-tenths of one per cent from the previous week.

Stock sales for the week totaled 17,413,845 shares, compared with 20,072,855 the previous week and 19,282,600 for the comparable week a year ago. Bond sales totaled $21,088,000 par value, compared with $23,899,000 a week ago and $31,355,600 for the comparable 1961 week.

Grade School Cage Program Meeting Held

70 Fifth, Sixth Graders Attend 1st Session Saturday

Circleville High School basketball coach Paul Reiss reported that he was pleased with the attendance at the first fifth and sixth grade cage organizational meeting.

Approximately 70 boys attended Circleville High School gymnasium.

Plans for the fifth and sixth grade cage program were discussed and the students were told what equipment will be needed.

The youthful cagers need tee shirts, supporters, shorts, socks and gym shoes.

Students from the various schools should report to centers at 10 a. m. Saturday as follows:

Fairgrounds Coliseum — Atwater and Nicholas Drive Schools. National Guard Armory — High, Franklin and Mound Street Schools. High School — Wayne, Corwin and South Court Street Schools.

Don Neff and Bill Mosure will be in charge of the program at the Coliseum, Don Dawson at the armory and Paul Reiss at the high school.

Any student not attending the first meeting may attend Saturday at their respective center. Those not having necessary equipment should not hesitate to appear at the meetings, Reiss said.

Parental permission sheets and the membership oath should be returned or picked up Saturday.

Teams will be organized by the coaches with the aid of varsity and reserve players. Teams will be named after players. There will be eight players to a team.

On Nov. 24 clinics will be held at the three centers. Fundamentals of basketball will be stressed.

On December 1 the league schedules will start. Tentative plans call for a tournament at the end of the season.

U.S. Retains Canada Cup Golf Title

SAN ISIDRO, Argentina (AP) — The United States possessed its third straight Canada Cup golf crown today but the American tandem of Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead almost lost it on the treacherous 10th hole of the Jockey Club course.

Hole No. 10 is a par 4, 466-yard dogleg to the right which appears harmless enough but is lined with hidden obstacles.

It was there that Palmer three-putted for a bogey 5. Snead did even worse. The slammer from the West Virginia hills hooked his drive near the towering pine trees slammed an iron shot over the back of the green, hit a bank trying to reach the velvet and wound up with a 6.

Argentina's Roberto de Vincenzo won the individual championship with a final round 68, two under par for the 6,746-yard layout.

Snead, who had led the tournament during its first three days, skyrocketed to a closing 74 Sunday firing four bogies in addition to the double bogey.

Palmer's 1-under-par 69 protected the lead of the Americans, who finished with an over-all score of 557 for the 72-hole test for the cream of the stars from 33 nations. The grand total left Palmer and Snead two strokes ahead of De Vincenzo and Fidel Deluca who fashioned a 559 total.

Australia trailed the Argentines in third with 569. England was fourth with 572 and France fifth with 585.

Tiger Staff Names 'Team' of Week

Coach Carl Benhase named 14 Circleville gridders to the player of the week selection today for the outstanding team effort in the "Mud Bowl" with Franklin Heights Friday night.

The Tiger mentor said conditions of the game — rain, mud, water, the glare of the lights on the field and the fact that Stan Spring, Circleville cameraman, took the pictures from inside the press box — made it impossible to grade the films.

Rather than forego the top player honors for the final game of a perfect season he picked all 14 starters.

On offense he named the Fantastic Four — Garold Dade, Duke Fyffe, Freddie Moore and Dave Hannans — and the Solid Seven — John Pharr, Howard Fletcher, Tom Bivens, Larry Adams, Richard Samuels, Ray Taylor and Tim Mogan.

DEFENSIVE stalwarts receiving top player mention were Bruce

4 Severe Penalties Beat Browns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three pass interference calls, a holding penalty and a lackluster offense—all to Cleveland's discredit—stand out as the key factors in the Browns' second loss to the Washington Redskins this season.

Despite another fine defensive effort, the Browns bowed to the Redskins 17-9 Sunday and saw the gap between them and the New York Giants, who lead the National Football League's Eastern Division, widen to 2½ games with only five left to play. The Browns are 4-4-1, the Giants 7-2.

Interference calls against Cleveland paved the way for both Washington touchdowns. A holding penalty in the final quarter canceled a Cleveland touchdown.

The Browns, who trailed 10-0 at the half and later 17-0, scored all their points in the third period on a beautifully executed 65-yard pass play from quarterback Frank Ryan to Ray Renfro and Lou Groza's 28-yard field goal.

Late in the second quarter, Washington scored a touchdown with the aid of two interference calls.

Here's How Top Ten Teams Fared

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Here's how the nation's top ten college football teams fared Saturday:

Redskins Drop 64-61 Thriller At Leesburg

The Kingston High School basketball team blew a 16 point first half lead Saturday, losing to Fairfield Leesburg, 64-61, on the Highland county team's home floor.

The Redskins quintet led 32-16 at one point in the first half, but the winners pulled within four points at halftime. In the third period they outscored Kingston, 19-15, to tie the game at 50-50.

The Redskins missed three costly layups in the final minutes. They were unable to capitalize on their free throws, hitting only 13 of 29 attempts.

Harold Albert, Kingston's 6-foot plus senior, gained high point honors for the night with eight field goals and five four shots for a 21 point total.

COX, with 19, and McFadden, with 18, paced the winning attack. The Fairfield reserves won 45-36 to make a perfect night for the host team. Friday the Redskins host Monroe.

Indians Earn 1st Win, Nip Ohio Deaf Unit

The Indians of Monroe evened their early cage season record at 1-1 with a 65-56 verdict Saturday night at Ohio Deaf.

Monroe hit the victory trail behind the efforts of four cagers who hit for 11 points or better. Doing the honors were Mick Hunt and Randy Richardson with 16 each. Gene Long with 12 and Tom Seely with 11.

Dick Everman's charges rushed to an 18-13 advantage, upped it to 34-24 at halftime and remained in command, 50-43, at the three-quarter mark.

Ohio Deaf stayed within shooting distance as Bradley hit for 23 points and Brown 18. Hunt and Richardson, however, offset this double attack by hitting consistently from around the key.

THE INDIANS will go after their second win Friday with a trip to Kingston. Ohio Deaf earned consolation honors by winning the preliminary encounter, 37-29.

Oregon Looms Before Bucks

Bowling Green Cops Mid-American Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's Buckeyes, after a shaky 10-7 win over the 18-point underdog Hoosiers of Indiana, face another menace Saturday in the Webfoots of Oregon.

Coach Len Casanova, 10-7 loser to the Bucks in the 1958 Rose Bowl and a 22-12 victim last year, has his West Coast club on the move. The Webfoots have a 6-1-1 record to Ohio State's 4-3, have outscored the foe 205-110 to Ohio's 151-91, and figure to be tougher than the Hoosiers, who dropped their 19th straight Big Ten game.

Elsewhere on the Buckeye front, Bowling Green wrapped up the Mid-American Conference crown again by beating Ohio University 7-6, and Wittenberg repeated as Oho Conference king with a 17-6 verdict over Akron.

Senior Asa Elisea, for the second straight year, booted the conversion as the Falcons nosed out the Bobcats—each time by a 7-6 count. But much of the victory credit goes to sophomore fullback Jim Wisser, who broke through to smother a field goal attempt with 1:13 remaining after the Bobcats had surged to the Bowling Green 2-yard line.

Wittenberg, statewide leader with eight straight wins, cracked the Zipper defense open with a pair of Charley Green to Bob Cherry touchdown passes in the third period. It was the 17th straight Ohio Conference victory for coach Bill Edwards' boys.

Other Ohio college scores: Miami (Ohio) 42, Dayton 20; Marshall 13, Xavier 6; Toledo 13, Temple 0; Louisville 29, Kent State 8; Muskingum 35, Capital 0; Denison 30, Oberlin 0; Hiram 21, Kenyon 12; John Carroll 12, Thiel 0; Case Tech 18, Wayne State 7; Wilmington 15, Taylor 14; Bethany 19, Western Reserve 0; Wooster 42, Marietta 0; Mount Union 20, Ashland 0; Anderson (Ind.) 19, Defiance 13; Wabash (Ind.) 7, Heidelberg 6; Hillsdale (Mich.) 35, Ohio Northern 6; Otterbein 21, Ohio Wesleyan 0; Northern Michigan 13, Findlay 0; Youngstown 13, Texas Lutheran 6; Bluffton 41, Northwood (Mich.) 7; Geneva (Pa.) at Baldwin-Wallace, postponed, bad weather; Central State at West Virginia State, postponed, bad weather.

In 1955, Denver manager Ralph Houk sent pitcher Ralph Terry to Birmingham of the American Association "for more experience". Terry was only 19 at the time.

Miss Sark, Mr. Herdman
Are United in Marriage

MRS. WRAY VAUGHN HERDMAN

Miss Elisabeth Ann Sark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Sark, 21 Walnut St., Ashville, became the bride of Mr. Wray Vaughn Herdman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Herdman, 433 Warren Ave., Washington C. H., at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in Ashville Methodist Church.

The Rev. William Sherertz performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with two seven branch candelabra and vases of white mums and gladioli. White satin bows with greenery outlined the aisle pews.

Mrs. Chester Peters was organist and Mrs. Don Welsh presented vocal selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a fitted basque bodice featuring a scalloped portrait neckline outlined with Alencon lace and enhanced with seed pearls. The long sleeves tapered to points over her hands. A butterfly bow accented the back of the very bouffant skirt. A crown of seed pearls and iridescent held her veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white mums. Her only jewelry was a small gold locket gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. John Little was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Huggins and Mrs. Richard Miller. They wore identical street length dresses of silk shantung fashioned with scoop necklines and petaled sheath overskirts.

The honor attendant wore Copenhagen blue, and the bridesmaids wore Kelly green. Seed pearl crowns held their matching circular veils and each carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums. Miss Jani Marie Little, junior bridesmaid, wore blue with a blue bow in her hair. She carried a small bouquet of bronze mums.

Mr. Larry Shoemaker served as best man and ushers were Mr. John Little and Dr. Robert Slinwinski. Johnny Little Jr. was junior usher.

Mrs. Sark chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece Dior blue silk dress with a lace bodice and matching velvet hat.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace dress with a matching satin bow at the waist and a matching hat.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Pickaway Country Club. The three-tiered wedding cake was encircled with greenery and white mums highlighted with antique crystal candlesticks and white tapers. Hostesses were: Miss Jeanne McGuire, Mrs. Robert Slinwinski, Miss Ruth Montelius, Mrs. Norman Snyder, Mrs. Paul Hickman and Miss Judy Hosler.

For their wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the new Mrs.

Herdman wore a Dior blue wool suit dress with matching hat, black shoes, white purse and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Ashville High School and Brown's School of Medical Technology. She is employed in the office of Dr. Robert Slinwinski, Ashville.

Mr. Herdman is a graduate of Washington C. H. High School and University of Cincinnati. He is employed at Container Corporation of America as a chemical engineer.

Out-of-town guests were from Circleville, Dayton, Cincinnati, Toledo, Coshocton, Washington C.H., North Madison, Marysville, Peebles, Cleveland, Sabina, Wilmington and The Plains.

Mrs. Weiler Feted
By Library Staff

Mrs. Vernon Weiler, 175 Sunset Drive, was guest of honor at a dinner Friday evening at the Fox Farm given by staff members of Pickaway County District Public Library.

The group also presented a gift to Mrs. Weiler.

Members attending were Mrs. Enid Denham, Mrs. Lester Wolford, Miss Jessie Cummings, Mrs. Celia Denofore, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Valentine and Mrs. Eleanor Hancher.

Beauty Tricks
Help Round
Too Thin Face

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

About the only woman who treasures that thin-faced look is the high fashion model.

Hollow-eyed and sunken-cheeked, her face is gaunt and that spells glamour when you're modeling haute couture clothes.

Otherwise? Experts on female charm — men — the guant look isn't girlish. It's ghoulish!

Read it — but don't weep! — if your face is on the long, thin side. With a little cosmetic camouflage and fashion know-how, you can round off the lines of a thin face and make it appear fetchingly full. Here's how:

Rouge: Place it high on the cheekbones. Blend up and out — never down into the lower cheek areas.

By keeping the lower half of the face lighter in color than the rouged portions, you will make it appear wider and more oval in shape.

Eyebrows: Shape brows into a gently curved arch which tapers toward the temples. Avoid a high, pointed brow line.

Lipstick: Avoid a lip line that's too high and extreme. Round off the points of the lips and carry lipstick right out to the corners of the mouth to give lips a wider line.

Foundation: Give your face a wider look by applying two shades of make-up.

Use a shade lighter than you apply to face and neck along the sides of jaws, starting from below the ear and extending to a point in line with the corners of your mouth.

Blend the light application well to eliminate a line of demarcation. Hairdo: Wear your hair full at the sides of your face to add width.

Avoid coiffures that are piled sky-high on your head. They add length.

With side width, you can have a certain amount of height on top — but not too much.

Wardrobe: Wear round and boat-shaped necklines. Avoid the line with a choker necklace or fill it with a ruffled or rounded dickey.

Jewelry: All jewelry that adds width is flattering to the thin face.

Round chunky earrings are a good choice. Avoid earrings that are long and drops of any length.

Steer clear of all V or U shaped necklaces. Wear the type of the choker type that circle the neck in a lovely rounded pattern.

The tricks suggested here, from the beauty box of a famed Hollywood make-up expert, will work wonders, for beauty is a matter of illusion. All you have to do is create the right one!

Past Matrons To Meet

Past Matrons, OES, will meet 2 p. m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Clarence Radcliff, 308 Northridge Road.

Meeting Scheduled

Berger Hospital Guild No. 30 will meet 7:30 p. m. Friday in the home of Mrs. Frank Graves, Route 1, Kingston. Mrs. Wells Wilson will be co-hostess.

Dear Abby: by Abigail Van Buren
On Breakfasts for Hubby

DEAR ABBY: Your guess that 75 percent of the married women made breakfasts for their husbands was conservative. I live in a 16-unit apartment building and I took a poll. Only two men make their own and they are both bachelors. By the way, I have made over 18,980 breakfasts for my husband. We've been married over 52 years and I missed only 9 times. (Three days for each "baby")

BLESSED

DEAR ABBY: What's so wonderful about getting up to make a husband's breakfast? I start mine at 2:30 a.m. and I prepare homemade biscuits, gravy and oatmeal for my darling. He's a milkman and must be on his way by 3:15. I go back to bed until 6:30; because my children don't leave for school until 7:15 and they get the same kind of breakfast. And at 7:30 a.m. my day's work begins! MILKMAN'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: When my husband decides to take his nose out of the newspaper at breakfast, and when I don't have to serve a nice dinner on a card table in front of the idiot box ('scuse me, the TV set) every evening—then, and only then, will I get up and fix breakfast for my husband. Why should I bother when he doesn't know what he's eating or who fixed it for him?

"NOT APPRECIATED"

DEAR ABBY: Count my wife in as one of the women who always gets up to make breakfast for her husband. She wouldn't think of sleeping. That's the time she hits me for some money.

PA

DEAR ABBY: Please tell that nifty of a wife to get up and fix her husband a good, hearty breakfast if she knows what's good for her. After 15 years of being married to a man who told me I was crazy to get up and make him breakfast because he could very easily grab a cup of coffee and a donut somewhere, I just gave up and stayed in bed. When I found where that "somewhere was, I divorced him.

PITTSBURGH

DEAR ABBY: I have always made "breakfast" a family ritual every morning. We all get up early enough to have a leisurely breakfast, and enjoy each other's company. As each child grows up and leaves home there is one place less to set at the table. And some day, gals, there may be none.

WIFE AND MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: Every morning at 6:15 I got up and prepared a king-sized breakfast for a king of a man. I never missed a morning from February 15th, 1916, until June 3rd, 1960. Now he is gone, and I can't break the habit of getting up at that hour. Sometimes I absent-mindedly set the table for two. Tell that lazy wife who refuses to give her husband breakfast to send him to my house. I'll cheerfully feed him and be glad for the company.

Meeting Is Scheduled

Circle No. 2 of First Methodist Church will meet 8 p. m. Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Paul Johnson, 584 Woodland Drive.

Wife Preservers

Before shampooing a child's hair, rub vaseline across the forehead. This will make a barrier to keep soapy water from getting in her eyes. Be sure to keep the vaseline out of the eyes, however.

Meeting Designated

The AAUW Art Workshop will convene 10 a. m. tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Luna, 898 N. Court St.

Allow a cut garlic clove to stand in a quarter pound of butter at room temperature for about 30 minutes. Remove the garlic and use the butter for spreading cuts of French bread. Heat in a moderate oven. Good for a casserole supper.

Small fry like these. Use a large round cookie cutter to remove the center from a slice of bread: brown one side of the bread in butter, slipping a whole raw egg into the center hole. Turn and brown other side of bread and egg, adding butter as needed.

Groom-to-Be Badly Bitten
In Shark Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Leroy French was badly bitten by a 14-foot shark Sunday off the Farallon Islands, but he didn't let the experience bother him too long.

From his bed in St. Mary's Hospital, French, 24-year-old San Rafael (Calif.) sporting goods store owner, expressed more concern over what effect his injury will have on his wedding.

"I was to be married next weekend," he told newsmen. "And if I can walk up the aisle, the wedding will go ahead as planned."

At French's bedside was his fiancée, attractive Cam McMenamin, 23, also of San Rafael. She was equally hopeful.

French's left hip and leg were mangled.

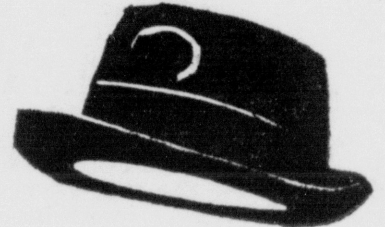

He had surfaced from photographing sea life 100 feet below and was headed for a boat which he and about 30 other skindivers were using when the shark attacked.

"First thing I knew it grabbed my hip and took me down about 15 feet," French said. "It was squirming and biting all the way down my leg to the ankle."

"I stabbed at it with my gun (speargun) and it took off. That's the last I saw it."

Grade School Cage Program Meeting Held

70 Fifth, Sixth Graders Attend 1st Session Saturday

Circleville High School basketball coach Paul Reiss reported that he was pleased with the attendance at the first fifth and sixth grade cage organizational meeting.

Approximately 70 boys attended Circleville High School gymnasium.

Plans for the fifth and sixth grade cage program were discussed and the students were told what equipment will be needed.

The youthful cagers need tee shirts, supporters, shorts, socks and gym shoes.

Students from the various schools should report to centers at 10 a. m. Saturday as follows:

Fairgrounds Coliseum — Atwater and Nicholas Drive Schools. National Guard Armory — High, Franklin and Mound Street Schools. High School — Wayne, Corwin and South Court Street Schools.

Don Neff and Bill Mosure will be in charge of the program at the Coliseum, Don Dawson at the armory and Paul Reiss at the high school.

Any student not attending the first meeting may attend Saturday at their respective center. Those not having necessary equipment should not hesitate to appear at the meetings, Reiss said.

Parental permission sheets and the membership oath should be returned or picked up Saturday.

Teams will be organized by the coaches with the aid of varsity and reserve players. Teams will be named after players. There will be eight players to a team.

On Nov. 24 clinics will be held at the three centers. Fundamentals of basketball will be stressed.

On December 1 the league schedules will start. Tentative plans call for a tournament at the end of the season.

U.S. Retains Canada Cup Golf Title

SAN ISIDRO, Argentina (AP) — The United States possessed its third straight Canada Cup golf crown today but the American tandem of Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead almost lost it on the treacherous 10th hole of the Jockey Club course.

Hole No. 10 is a par 4, 466-yard dogleg to the right which appears harmless enough but is lined with hidden obstacles.

It was there that Palmer three-putted for a bogey 5. Snead did even worse. The slammer from the West Virginia hills hooked his drive near the towering pine trees slammed an iron shot over the back of the green, hit a bank trying to reach the velvet and wound up with a 6.

Argentina's Roberto de Vincenzo won the individual championship with a final round 68, two under par for the 6,746-yard layout.

Snead, who had led the tournament during its first three days, skyrocketed to a closing 74 Sunday firing four bogies in addition to the double bogey.

Palmer's 1-under-par 69 protected the lead of the Americans, who finished with an over-all score of 557 for the 72-hole test for the cream of the stars from 33 nations. The grand total left Palmer and Snead two strokes ahead of De Vincenzo and Fidel DeLuca who fashioned a 559 total.

Australia trailed the Argentines in third with 569. England was fourth with 572 and France fifth with 585.

Tiger Staff Names 'Team' of Week

Coach Carl Benhase named 14 Circleville gridders to the player of the week selection today for the outstanding team effort in the "Mud Bowl" with Franklin Heights Friday night.

The Tiger mentor said conditions of the game — rain, mud, water, the glare of the lights on the field and the fact that Stan Spring, Circleville cameraman, took the pictures from inside the press box — made it impossible to grade the films.

Rather than forego the top player honors for the final game of a perfect season he picked all 14 starters.

On offense he named the Fantastic Four — Garold Dade, Duke Fyffe, Freddie Moore and Dave Hannans — and the Solid Seven — John Pharr, Howard Fletcher, Tom Bivens, Larry Adams, Richard Samuels, Ray Taylor and Tim Mogan.

DEFENSIVE stalwarts receiving top player mention were Bruce

4 Severe Penalties Beat Browns

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three pass interference calls, a holding penalty and a lackluster offense—all to Cleveland's deficit—stand out as the key factors in the Browns' second loss to the Washington Redskins this season.

Despite another fine defensive effort, the Browns bowed to the Redskins 17-9 Sunday and saw the gap between them and the New York Giants, who lead the National Football League's Eastern Division, widen to 2½ games with only five left to play.

The Browns are 4-4-1, the Giants 7-2. Interference calls against Cleveland paved the way for both Washington touchdowns. A holding penalty in the final quarter canceled a Cleveland touchdown.

The Browns, who trailed 10-0 at the half and later 17-0, scored all their points in the third period on a beautifully executed 65-yard pass play from quarterback Frank Ryan to Ray Renfro and Lou Groza's 28-yard field goal.

Late in the second quarter, Washington scored a touchdown with the aid of two interference calls.

Redskins Drop 64-61 Thriller At Leesburg

The Kingston High School basketball team blew a 16 point first half lead Saturday, losing to Fairfield Leesburg, 64-61, on the Highland county team's home floor.

The Redskins quintet led 32-16 at one point in the first half, but the winners pulled within four points at halftime. In the third period they outscored Kingston, 19-15, to tie the game at 50-50.

The Redskins missed three costly layups in the final minutes. They were unable to capitalize on their free throws, hitting only 15 of 29 attempts.

Harold Albert, Kingston's 6-foot plus senior, gained high point honors for the night with eight field goals and five four shots for a 21 point total.

COX, with 19, and McFadden, with 18, paced the winning attack. The Fairfield reserves won 45-36 to make a perfect night for the host team. Friday the Redskins host Monroe.

Indians Earn 1st Win, Nip Ohio Deaf Unit

The Indians of Monroe evened their early cage season record at 1-1 with a 65-56 verdict Saturday night at Ohio Deaf.

Monroe hit the victory trail behind the efforts of four cagers who hit for 11 points or better. Doing the honors were Mick Hunt and Randy Richardson with 16 each, Gene Long with 12 and Tom Seclay with 11.

Dick Everman's charges rushed to an 18-13 advantage, upped it to 34-24 at halftime and remained in command, 50-43, at the three-quarter mark.

Ohio Deaf stayed within shooting distance as Bradley hit for 23 points and Bragg 18. Hunt and Richardson, however, offset this double attack by hitting consistently from around the key.

THE INDIANS will go after their second win Friday with a trip to Kingston.

Ohio Deaf earned consolation honors by winning the preliminary encounter, 37-29.

Oregon Looms Before Bucks

Bowling Green Cops Mid-American Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's Buckeyes, after a shaky 10-7 win over the 18-point underdog Hoosiers of Indiana, face another menace Saturday in the Webfoots of Oregon.

Coach Len Casanova, 10-7 loser to the Bucks in the 1958 Rose Bowl and a 22-12 victim last year, has his West Coast club on the move. The Webfoots have a 6-1-1 record to Ohio State's 4-3, have outscored the foe 205-110 to Ohio's 151-91, and figure to be tougher than the Hoosiers, who dropped their 19th straight Big Ten game.

Elsewhere on the Buckeye front, Bowling Green wrapped up the Mid-American Conference crown again by beating Ohio University 7-6, and Wittenberg repeated as Ohio Conference king with a 17-6 verdict over Akron.

Senior Asa Elsea, for the second straight year, booked the conversion as the Falcons nosed out the Bobcats—each time by a 7-6 count. But much of the victory credit goes to sophomore fullback Jim Wisser, who broke through to smother a field goal attempt with 1:13 remaining after the Bobcats had surged to the Bowling Green 2-yard line.

Wittenberg, statewide leader with eight straight wins, cracked the zipper defense open with a pair of Charley Green to Bob Cherry touchdown passes in the third period. It was the 17th straight Ohio Conference victory to coach Bill Edwards' boys.

Deers Cool In 3rd Canto, Drop Cage Tilt

A cool third quarter was a crimp for the Deers of Williamsport who dropped a 65-62 cage tilt Saturday night to visiting Bucks.

The scoring combination of Lew Speakman and Ed Schiller, with 29 and 23 points respectively, posed another pitfall for the Deers. Speakman had 20 of his tallies in the first half, but when the hosts aligned on him in the second interlude, Schiller proceeded to break loose for 18.

Coach Glen Chester's Deers made a battle of it throughout, mainly due to the scoring ability of Rick Fenstermaker with 21 points and Don Cook with 13.

Williamsport surged to a 19-16 first quarter lead, then dropped behind, 36-35 at halftime. Disaster struck in the third canto when the Deers managed to hit only three of 18 field attempts, allowing the visitors to pull ahead, 51-44.

BUCKSKIN, running its record to 3-0, grabbed 45 rebounds compared to 39 for the Deers. Williamsport hit 14 of 19 from the foul line.

The Ross Countians made it a clean sweep winning the reserve tilt, 45-32.

Stocks at Crest of 2-Week Climb

By ED MORSE
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market today stands on the crest of a two-week advance linked with improving international and economic news.

As the week ended, the Dow Jones industrial average was above the Aug. 23 recovery peak of 616.00 — the highest previous point reached in the recovery from the June bottom.

During the past week the Dow Industrials advanced 11.55 to 616.13. Based on closing averages, the Dow Industrials rose 47.11 from Oct. 26, when the Cuban crisis was still in doubt, to this week's close.

In addition to the reassuring fact that the Cuban crisis had passed with an apparent victory for the United States came some good news about dividends this week.

JFK Presses NCAA, AAU To End Fuss

NEW YORK (AP)—Under direct pressure from President Kennedy, the AAU and NCAA are expected to sign a pact today ending the bitter, 21-year war for control of amateur sports in the United States.

The President's brother, Attorney General Robert Kennedy, was here to sit in as mediator at a meeting called by Kenneth (Tug) Wilson, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

The President was reported gravely concerned over the effect of the battle between the Amateur Athletic Union, governing body of many U.S. amateur sports, and rival federations formed with the sanction of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which runs the college show.

The college federations listed the four broad principles of settlement as the following:

1. The new federations and the AAU would enter into a signed agreement.
2. The U.S. Track and Field Federation would consider ways and means of cooperating with the AAU in regard to international recognition.
3. Dual sanctioning of competition in the United States would be put into operation.
4. Federation members would be asked to make their facilities and personnel available for AAU events in accordance with established sanctioning policies.

Conservatives, Liberals Fight For GOP Control

WASHINGTON (AP)—The firing on the right and the left already has begun in what promises to be an 18-month battle between conservatives and liberals for control of the Republican party.

Farm Roundup

Milk Surplus Expected To Increase in '63

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Milk production, already at a surplus level, is expected to increase further next year.

An Agriculture Department dairy outlook report for 1963 said today milk production next year is expected to exceed this year's indicated record high of 126.5 billion pounds. Last year's production was 125.5 billion pounds. Next year's production was forecast at 127.5 billion pounds.

The department said this forecast is based on the assumption that present federal dairy programs would be continued and that there would be little change in the international situation.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has said, however, that the Kennedy administration will seek new dairy legislation designed to restrict production to market demands. The character of this legislation has not yet been announced but is expected to include payments to dairymen reducing output.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says it appears that the number of horses and mules on farms has leveled off at around three million head after a gradual decline which began about 30 years ago.

In the late 1920s, there were more than 20 million head of horses and mules. But with the introduction and expansion in use of tractors and trucks on farms, the number declined.

The department estimated in a report that this reduction in work animals has cut demand for feed grains for them from 25 million tons a year in the 1920s to less than three million tons. It said this development has made more grain available for use in producing meat animals.

NAACP Seeks Troops in Voter Signup

CLEVELAND (AP) — The use of federal troops in Mississippi to protect Negroes trying to register as voters is being sought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the association's board chairman said here Sunday.

Bishop Stephen G. Spottwood of the 4th Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Zion Church said in an interview that the NAACP board at its Monday meeting in New York this week will discuss the proposition of registering and organizing of the voter registration drive among Mississippi Negroes. Bishop Spottwood said the request for federal troops in various parts of Mississippi to avert what he called violent interference with voters registration is not the first such request.

"We first approached the administration just before the Cuban crisis," he said. "Now that the Cuban situation is relaxing, we again think troops should be sent not just to Jackson, but anywhere in the state where voters have been threatened with reprisals."

Threats of reprisals have been received by several NAACP registration workers and Negro voters are being terrorized, the bishop said.

He came to Cleveland Friday from his home in Washington for his annual visit to the A.M.E. Zion churches in this area. He leaves today for New York to preside over the NAACP board meeting.

By the time the Republican National Convention meets in mid-1964, delegates will have before them the results of presidential primaries, the record of the Republicans in Congress and the performance of party governors in choosing a presidential candidate. No one is doubting that President Kennedy will be the democratic standard bearer.

Meantime the prospects point to plenty of intraparty battling. Last Tuesday's election gave both sides some fresh ammunition.

The party's liberals could point to the re-election of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in New York and to the victories in governor races of George Romney in Michigan and William W. Scranton in Pennsylvania as marking a trend toward moderation, if not liberalism, within the party. They could cap this with the notation that a couple of candidates regarded as liberals won key Senate races in the two biggest states. They are Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

Beyond this the liberals could demonstrate to their party brethren that extreme rightism does not pay by citing the defeat of four Joan Birch House members in three House races in California and one in Texas. Against this the conservatives could point to the gain of four new Republican House seats in the South, where the winning margin for either 1964 presidential candidate might lie if results in other sections of the country are close.

They could cite the narrow escape of Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., from defeat by a Republican candidate as evidence that there is no Dixie antagonism to the Kennedy administration's policies — particularly on integration — that could be reflected by substantial electoral defection from the President in that area in 1964.

The conservatives' biggest victory produced a new contender for national recognition in the re-election of Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky. The party conservatives could feel reassured that their viewpoint is going to be amply represented in the minority leadership in the new Congress.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., will be back running the Republican show in the House. In the Senate, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois again will be directing the minority floor operations and Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, will be running the GOP Policy Committee.

Attending the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Loring Leist, Miss Weta Mae Leist, Mr. and Mrs. DeLong, Miss Lydia DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Hinton and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hedges.

Khrushchev Is Seen Helped, Not Just Hurt, by Cuba

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Strong evidence from Moscow suggests that Nikita Khrushchev has been helped as much as he has been hurt by the Cuban crisis. Indications are that he will have his way in preparing the U.S.S.R. for a long-pull economic cold war.

Close examination of what went on before, during and after the 45th October Revolution anniversary seems to justify speculation concerning developments of high significance in the global political-economic war.

A picture emerges of Khrushchev as chairman of a collective of Soviet leaders whose theories, doggedly pushed since the de-stalinization congress of 1956, now are being vindicated.

The collective thus has had the opportunity to apply a coup de grace to its internal enemies and turn its attention to Khrushchev's original program. This seemingly was based on the assumption that nuclear war would ruin the Soviet Union, and that the logical course was to prepare for economic war on a world scale.

This does not mean Communists will not grab opportunities where they find them. But it can mean that the overriding policy is "better safe than sorry." It can mean that so long as the United States and the West keep up their guard, caution will be the Kremlin watchword.

The Cuban adventure showed how close Moscow could come to blundering into nuclear war with reckless warlike policies. It is even possible the missile buildup in Cuba was undertaken against Khrushchev's better judgment, that he was overruled when the decision was made some months ago to go ahead with it.

Indications now are that Khrushchev's side has won whatever debates went on in party councils regarding the decision to pull back the missiles.

Having won that argument, the collective is strengthened in holding back impatient Communists who want aggressive action in West Berlin and elsewhere.

All these things undoubtedly were dealt with during the parade of visits satellite leaders made to Moscow recently.

Principally, the Kremlin seems preoccupied with putting off the time when it might have to take an action which would take the U.S.S.R. beyond the point of no return.

The whole tone of the 45th anniversary celebration was one of moderation.

All this may signify a significant turn in Soviet policy. It can mean that the present Soviet leadership, has decided, with regard to Communist expansion, to make haste a little more slowly, at least while the Western world remains on the alert.

Italy's Top Political Party Debates Stand

ROME (AP)—The leadership of Italy's top political party went on overtime today in a major policy debate as two days of local elections drew to a close.

The National Council of Premier Amintore Fanfani's Christian Democrats, discussing the government's center-left orientation, failed to complete its debate in a scheduled two-day meeting. The session adjourned Sunday night, putting off until today a formal vote on a resolution.

The council had been called for two reasons—to consider a reply to a Socialist bid for closer cooperation during the next five years and to study demands by Christian Democrat rights for more assurances that the socialists have broken completely with the communists.

These issues were up for a test in the nation at large as voting for town councils in 266 scattered communities neared its end. A million and a quarter Italians were eligible for the voting, which began Sunday. First results will probably not be available until Tuesday.

The turnout ran well over 65 per cent in most sections and up in the 70s and 80s in many areas.

The Virgin Islands attract more than 100 species of birds.

Conservatives, Liberals Fight For GOP Control

WASHINGTON (AP)—The firing on the right and the left already has begun in what promises to be an 18-month battle between conservatives and liberals for control of the Republican party.

Farm Roundup

Milk Surplus Expected To Increase in '63

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Milk production, already at a surplus level, is expected to increase further next year.

An Agriculture Department dairy outlook report for 1963 said today milk production next year is expected to exceed this year's indicated record high of 126.5 billion pounds. Last year's production was 125.5 billion pounds. Next year's production was forecast at 127.5 billion pounds.

The department said this forecast is based on the assumption that present federal dairy programs would be continued and that there would be little change in the international situation.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman has said, however, that the Kennedy administration will seek new dairy legislation designed to restrict production to market demands. The character of this legislation has not yet been announced but is expected to include payments to dairymen reducing output.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says it appears that the number of horses and mules on farms has leveled off at around three million head after a gradual decline which began about 50 years ago.

In the late 1920s, there were more than 20 million head of horses and mules. But with the introduction and expansion in use of tractors and trucks on farms, the number declined.

The department estimated in a report that this reduction in work animals has cut demand for feed grains for them from 25 million tons a year in the 1920s to less than three million tons. It said this development has made more grain available for use in producing meat animals.

NAACP Seeks Troops in Voter Signup

CLEVELAND (AP) — The use of federal troops in Mississippi to protect Negroes trying to register as voters is being sought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the association's board chairman said here Sunday.

Bishop Stephen G. Spottwood of the 4th Episcopal District of the American Church said in an interview that the NAACP board at its Monday meeting in New York this week will discuss the proposition of registering and organizing of the voter registration drive among Mississippi Negroes.

Bishop Spottwood said the request for federal troops in various parts of Mississippi to avert what he called violent interference with voter registration is not the first such request.

"We first approached the administration just before the Cuban crisis," he said. "Now that the Cuban situation is relaxing, we again think troops should be sent not just to Jackson, but anywhere in the state where voters have been threatened with repression."

Threats of reprisals have been received by several NAACP registration workers and Negro voters are being terrorized, the bishop said.

He came to Cleveland Friday from his home in Washington for his annual visit to the American churches in this area. He leaves today for New York to preside over the NAACP board meeting.

By the time the Republican National Convention meets in mid-1964, delegates will have before them the results of presidential primaries, the record of the Republicans in Congress and the performance of party governors in choosing a presidential candidate. No one is doubting that President Kennedy will be the democratic standard bearer.

Meantime the prospects point to plenty of intraparty battling. Last Tuesday's election gave both sides some fresh ammunition.

The party's liberals could point to the re-election of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in New York and to the victories in governor races of George Romney in Michigan and William W. Scranton in Pennsylvania as marking a trend toward moderation, if not liberalism, within the party. They could cap this with the notation that a couple of candidates regarded as liberals won key Senate races in the two biggest states. They are Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif.

Beyond this the liberals could demonstrate to their party brethren that extreme rightism does not pay by citing the defeat of four John Birch Society members in three House races in California and one in Texas.

Against this the conservatives could point to the gain of four new Republican House seats in the South, where the winning margin for either 1964 presidential candidate might lie if results in other sections of the country are close.

They could cite the narrow escape of Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., from defeat by a Republican candidate as evidence that there is unbridled Dixie antagonism to the Kennedy administration's policies — particularly on integration — that could be reflected by substantial electoral defection from the President in that area in 1964.

The conservatives' biggest victory produced a new contender for national recognition in the re-election of Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.

The party conservatives could feel reassured that their viewpoint is going to be amply represented in the minority leadership in the new Congress.

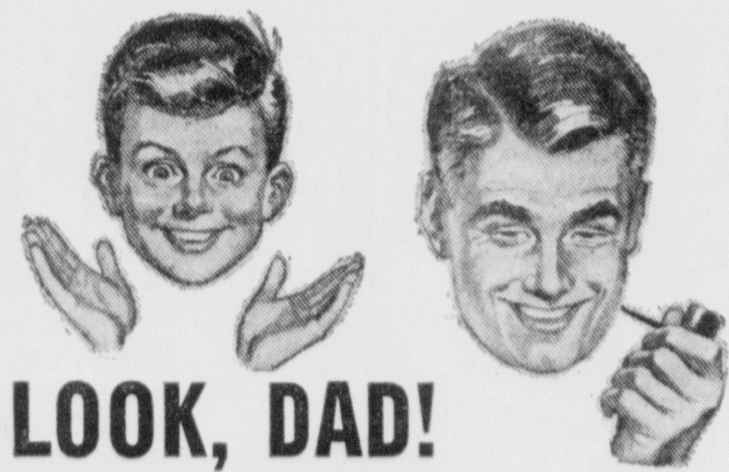

Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., will be back running the Republican show in the House. In the Senate, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois again will be directing the minority floor operations and Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, will be running the GOP Policy Committee.

Khrushchev Is Seen Helped, Not Just Hurt, by Cuba

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Strong evidence from Moscow suggests that Nikita Khrushchev has been helped as much as he has been hurt by the Cuban crisis. Indications are that he will have his way in preparing the U.S.S.R. for a long-pull economic cold war.

Close examination of what went on before, during and after the 45th October Revolution anniversary seems to justify speculation concerning developments of high significance in the global political-economic war.

A picture emerges of Khrushchev as chairman of a collective of Soviet leaders whose theories, doggedly pushed since the de-stalinization congress of 1956, now are being vindicated.

The collective thus has had the opportunity to apply a coup de grace to its internal enemies and turn its attention to Khrushchev's original program. This seemingly was based on the assumption that nuclear war would ruin the Soviet Union, and that the logical course was to prepare for economic war on a world scale.

This does not mean Communists will not grab opportunities where they find them. But it can mean that the overriding policy is "better safe than sorry." It can mean that so long as the United States and the West keep up their guard, caution will be the Kremlin watchword.

The Cuban adventure showed how close Moscow could come to blundering into nuclear war with recklessly warlike policies. It is even possible the missile buildup in Cuba was undertaken against Khrushchev's better judgment, that he was overruled when the decision was made some months ago to go ahead with it.

Indications now are that Khrushchev's side has won whatever debates went on in party councils regarding the decision to pull back the missiles.

Having won that argument, the collective is strengthened in holding back impatient Communists who want aggressive action in West Berlin and elsewhere.

All these things undoubtedly were dealt with during the parade of visits satellite leaders made to Moscow recently.

Principally, the Kremlin seems preoccupied with putting off the time when it might have to take an action which would take the U.S.S.R. beyond the point of no return.

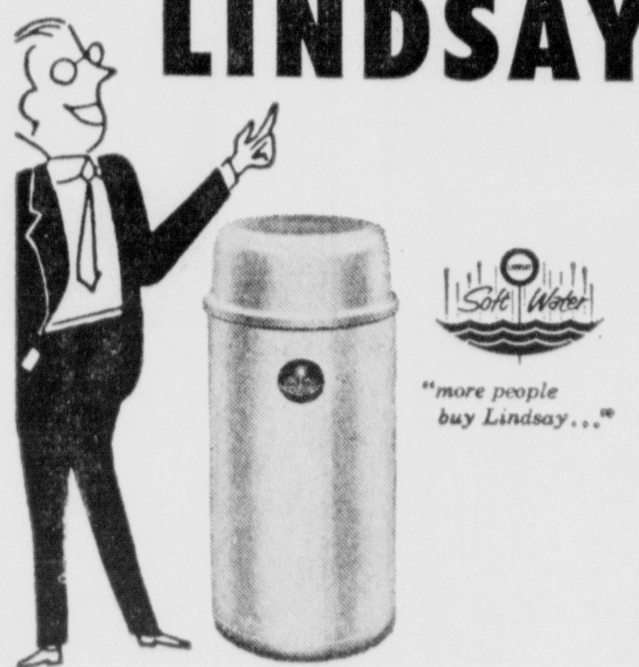

The whole tone of the 45th anniversary celebration was one of moderation.

All this may signify a significant turn in Soviet policy. It can mean that the present Soviet leadership, has decided, with regard to Communist expansion, to make haste a little more slowly, at least while the Western world remains on the alert.
